CURRENT NO. 3451
No. 2754
CHIEF SECRETARY
GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS
6 OCT. 1895

Forwarded with the remark that it is open to Government to adopt three alternative methods in the case of Mr. Thornton.

1st Mr. Thornton may be regarded as being in charge of the current duties of the Manager, Jaypore Estate in addition to his duties as acting Senior Assistant Collector.

2nd He may be considered as acting Manager in addition to his duties as acting Senior Assistant Collector.

3rd He may be considered as acting Manager in charge of the current duties of the Senior Assistant Collector.

In the first case Mr. Thornton can be allowed in addition to his salary and allowance as acting

* Pay	560
Ag. allowance	200
Pentage	35
	795

Senior Assistant, a charge allowance not exceeding Rs 116-10-8 per mensem article 176 Civil Service Regulations. This

* 10/1166-10-8	116-10-8
----------------	----------

charge allowance is admissible only from the thirty first day of his taking charge (article 123 A Civil Service Regulations) and will be debited to the Jaypore Estate (Clause C Article 773 Civil Account Code).

In the second case Mr. Thornton is entitled to the salary and allowance at Rs 999-7-1 per mensem for the duties

* Pay	560-0-0
Ag. allowance	404-7-1
Pentage	35-0-0
	999-7-1 of the Manager and he can be allowed such allowance as Government may fix not exceeding Rs 380 per mensem for the duties of the Senior Assistant (Article 184 clauses 1 & 2 Civil Service Regulations). If the aggregate salary exceeds Rs 1166-10-8 per mensem the pay of the Manager, it will be necessary for Government to dispense with the proviso in Clause III and to make the declaration prescribed in Rule 1 under Article 184. In this case his salary & allowances as acting Senior Assistant will be debited to Government and the rest to the Jaypore Estate (Clause C Article 773 Civil Account Code).

In the third case Mr. Thornton is entitled as acting

For the first thirty days	After that period
Pay Rs 560-0-0	560-0-0
3/40 Ag. allowance	303-5-4
	404-7-1
Pentage	35-0-0
	35-0-0
	898-5-4
	999-7-1

Manager to salary and allowance as shown in the margin and he can be allowed a charge

allowance at Rs 100 per mensem for the duties of the Senior Assistant collector, the salary and allowances as Ag.
Manager being debited to Estate and the charge allowance to Government. In this case it will be necessary for Government to reappoint Mr. Thornton as Ag. Senior Assistant on being relieved of the duties of Manager.

SIR,

With reference to Board's Telegram dated 7-8-95 ordering me to take charge of the Jeypore Estate during Mr. Taylor's absence on privilege leave I have the honor to request that you will be good enough to declare that proviso (iii) of article 184 of the Civil Service Regulations should be dispensed with as if I draw allowance as Jeypore Manager and Senior Assistant Collector in addition to my permanent pay, the amount exceeds the permanent pay of Jeypore Manager viz. Rs 1166-10-8 by Rs 257-12-5. The Manager's business makes a very appreciable increase in my day's work.

I have the honor to be

2 I regret that I am unable to support the claim request. I do not quite follow Mr. Thornton's calculation but even if they are correct I could not recommend that the proviso referred to be dispensed with, throwing an unnecessary charge on the Jaypore

3 I repeat instructions as to the allowances which it is intended to give Mr.
Thornton i.e. whether they will be calculated under Art. 184 or Art. 176 C.S.R.
4 I presume the extra charge will be borne by the Jaypore

Resolution

Submitted for the orders of Government with reference to G.O. dated 10 August 1895. No. 967 R. (Public)

2. The Board observes that Mr. Shrivatsa's figures are incorrect and that he is not entitled to the benefit of clause (ii) of Article 184 of the Civil Service Regulations as he is not in charge of the Assistant's Division.

3. In the circumstances of the case case, however, the Board recommends that Mr Shanton be granted pay as Acting Manager of the Jeypore Estate (Article 821 of the Civil Service Regulations) as also an allowance of Rupees 100 per mensem for holding charge of the Senior Assistant's division (Article 176 of the Civil Service Regulations)

The Board agrees with the Agent that the extra charge, due to the arrangement proposed, should be borne by the Jeypore Estate.

ORDER of 5 Dec. 95, No. 1409.

H.E. the Governor in Council is pleased to declare that as no officer was available to act as Manager of the Jeypore Estate during the absence of Mr. H.D. Taylor on privilege leave, it was necessary on public grounds to entrust to Mr. E.L.R. Thornton the duties of that office in addition to those connected with the Senior Assistantship of Vizagapatam. As the salary to which Mr.
Thornton would be limited by proviso (III) to art. 184 of the G.S.R. would not be sufficient for the two offices, he will be permitted to draw, during the period he acted in them, salary at the rate of Rs. 1379-7-1 per mensem.

note
Think he is fairly entitled to the full sum -

To The Acct. General
,, Board of Rev. (Land Rev.)
E.L.R. Thornton Esq., I.C.S.

NOTE

Please see the A.G.'s endorsement in the current file marked with a slip. The draft order follows the second course proposed by him which seems the fairest in the ~~inter~~ circumstances, as Mr. Thornton was actually in charge of the two appointments. The salary mentioned in the draft is the maximum admissible but it is for Govt. to say how much much over and above the salary of the Manager (Rs.999-7-1) Mr.Thornton should receive, subject of course to the maximum of Rs.580.
