MADEIRA
CHIEF SECRETARY
5 NOV 1895
GOVERNMENT OF MADAGASCAR

Sir,

Having come to England on six months special leave on private affairs I find that I cannot conveniently arrange the business, on which I came, under a year.

on the one hand I shall not know definitely until next summer if the authorities intend to give me a permanent post in the College; and on the other hand I shall require that additional time to ascertain if my own private affairs are in a condition which would permit of my remaining in England for good, and to satisfy myself that the life would be one which would suit me.

I trust, therefore, that Government may be pleased to grant me an extension of extraordinary leave without pay for an additional six months on the expiry of my present leave.

I have the honor to be,
your most obedient servant

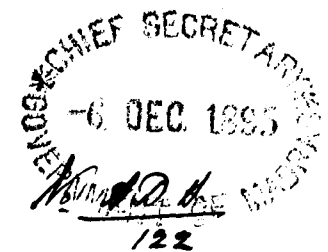

McConcannon.

The recent changes made in Article 366 of the Civil Service Regulations by which the words "in case of necessity" have been substituted for "at discretion" are intended to restrict in a greater degree than formerly the grant of Extraordinary leave. Under note 2 to the said Article the local Government is declared to be the proper judge whether necessity exists.

GOVERNMENT OF INDIA

Dear Mr. P. A. S., as I am sending a formal application by this mail for an extension of my leave for another six months without pay I thought that you would

at mind my letting you now, by a semi-official, that I could hardly put that letter. I find, of course, that the life here is a very tame one after India, and am still very doubtful if I shall decide to take it up for good.

But I cannot under any circumstances leave the college in the hands of suddenly going away in the middle of the year, as I should have to do if obliged to return to India at the end of my six months.
and by the summer I

also know more definitely about the other matters which I have mentioned in my official letter. I hope, therefore, that Govt. will be able to grant me the extension.

Believe me
yours sincerely,

McConaughy.
