Remarks by the Protector of Emigrants.

The Steam Ship 'Dongola' arrived here from Natal with returned emigrants for Madras and Calcutta on the evening of the 30th November 1895. Out of the 52 emigrants who left the Colony for this port one died during the voyage and the remaining 51 were landed on the 2nd instant and inspected by the Medical Inspector and myself. 4 of the Coolies paid their passage back and the rest were sent to their respective villages at the expense of the Colonial Government. The savings brought by them are declared to aggregate Rs 15000. There were 3 lepers among the Coolies. There was no complaint worthy of note; the Coolies were quite satisfied with their treatment both on board and in the Colony.
