My dear Mr Grimley,

Referring to your application for special leave from the 1st January next, I wish to ask you to kindly let me know the nature of the "urgent private affairs"
which necessitate it.

This you can do by confidential semi-official letter if you so desire but your application cannot go forward for disposal without the information for which I now ask.

Yours sincerely,
W. J. Price.

My dear Mr. P.

I have had very bad accounts from home about my Mother's health & that is why I have applied for leave.

The doctor says that she ought to go to a warmer climate & I wish to join her in Italy or the South of France.

yours sincerely,
R. H. H. H.
