D.O. No 476. Tanjore Collector's Office
VALLAM,

My dear Sir.

I telegraphed to you this morning that Chetty was very ill. It is now an open question that he has advised of the time having had one hope & this makes it certain that he can not possibly return to Kumbakonam in due. I will therefore of time.

to ask that arrangements may be made to appoint his successor so that he may join after the Holidays. The Kombaromam Office cannot be left without a proper Officer in charge for any length.

Yours sincerely

G. D. D. D.

My dear Bice

Have you ordered Raffin to join at Cumbassan at the end of the holidays? If not, I think you should - don't forget the fact! Hope the day before yesterday - no, on Saturday - saw Clay & from his appearance & from a few words I had with Maitland I formed a bad opinion of his case - Stokes has just been in & confirms this from what he has heard from Thompson who has been attending him -
