SEVENTY-FIFTH ANNUAL REPORT

OF THE

Friend-in-Need Society, For the year 1894.

THE year opened with a balance of Rs. 252-6-0 in favour of the Society and closed with Rs. 1,015-4-6 to its credit. But for the greater portion of the year the Society has been in debt to its Bankers—the deficit having reached a sum of Rs. 2,814-15-7 in September. A special appeal had therefore to be made to the public in October to help to pay off the debt. In response the sum of Rs. 1,280 was received. This was supplemented by Rs. 752-8-0 being the proceeds of four concerts given at the Banqueting Hall under the patronage of Their Excellencies Lord and Lady Wenlock. To Colonel and Mrs. Fane Sewell who organised these concerts, to the Madras Musical Association, the Vepery Musical Union, the Choirs of St. George's Cathedral and St. Andrew's Kirk who took part in them, and to the several kind friends who defrayed the cost of lighting, printing, advertising &c., our most hearty thanks are due.

The Committee desires to draw attention to the fact that the finances are in a very straitened condition each year in the months of July to October, and that donations or subscriptions received in those months are specially acceptable.

The total receipts have been Rs. 29,340-12-2, and the expenditure Rs. 28,547-13-8. The principal items, compared with those for the preceding year, are as follows:—

Out-door relief.—From February 1894 the Committees of the Society's workshops have, under the revised rules, been constituted Local Committees in respect of all women on the rolls of the workshops. Several women who had hitherto received aid through the District Local Committees were accordingly transferred to the Ladies' Committees, and funds were placed at the disposal of the latter to assist deserving needlewomen who were otherwise unable to earn a sufficient livelihood. Excluding those helped through the workshops there were, on the 31st December last, 205 out-pensioners, against 218 at the end of 1893.

In-door relief.—The number of inmates in the Home on the 31st December was 142 against 167 on the corresponding date in the previous year. Sixty-seven individuals passed through the Home during the year. There were five deaths—three of men aged 75, 76 and 77 years respectively and two of women aged 64 and 78 years. The decrease in in-door relief is accidental and indicates no change of policy.

Assistant Surgeon H. Hawkes continues in medical charge. The health of the inmates has been good.

Mr. and Mrs. Crummey, the Master and the Matron, and Mr. Clarke, the Schoolmaster, have discharged their duties satisfactorily.

To Mrs. Foulis, Mrs. Brittain, Mrs. Kellie, Mrs. Dunhill and other ladies who visit the Home and take a special interest in the welfare of the women our best thanks are due. We are also indebted to those donors of clothing, books, cigars, &c., of whom a list is given in an appendix to this report.

Towards the usual Christmas and New Years' treats there was received a sum of Rs. 516-4-0 direct from subscribers and Rs. 100 from the Christmas Central Charity Committee, making a total of Rs. 616-4-0. The expenditure was Rs. 810-11-8, viz., Rs. 261-11-3 on clothing, Rs. 180 on blankets, and Rs. 369-0-5 on the treat.

The Society continued to pay for 29 children at the following institutions.

Mrs. Firth's Schools	...	17 girls and 2 boys.
The Presentation Convent	...	3 girls.
The Industrial School	...	3 boys.
St. Patricks' Orphanage	...	4 boys.

The expenditure under this head was Rs. 1,561.

The mendicity ticket system.—Two hundred and forty-six mendicants were referred by Subscribers to the Society for relief. Their cases were disposed of as follows:—

Admitted to the Home	...	8
Given work in the labour yard	...	28
Given assistance in cash...	...	65
Provided with railway or steamer fares..	50
	—	151
		1½

Ineligible for relief under the rules ...	8
Found undeserving and so not helped ...	15
Refused to work and so not helped ...	24
Failed to appear before Hon. Secretary..	48
— 95

In addition to the above many persons in distress applied direct to the Honorary Secretary, who investigated their cases and afforded relief whenever it was deserved. Each such case is reported to the General Committee for approval at the following monthly meeting.

The Women's Workshops.—The reports of the Ladies' Committees are attached as appendices to this report. With the exception of the Black Town Workshop, which has to work under great disadvantages, the year has been a prosperous one for these institutions. Regarding the change in the method of giving casual relief to the Society's needlewomen, the Egmore Workshop Ladies' Committee say that "although this has increased their duties, the system is a far more effective way of ensuring that casual relief reaches those who are most in need of it; and the special funds placed monthly at the Committee's disposal for this purpose have been most carefully employed with this end in view."

The number of women employed in these institutions is 208, as below:—

Mount Road Workshop	75
Egmore Workshop	73
Black Town Workshop	37
St. Thomé Workshop	23

There is in addition a sewing class held in the Christ Church School Room, Mount Road, under the kind supervision of Mrs. C. H. Rowland and Mrs. Fred Rodgers, where 29 women and 8 girls are taught sewing twice a week. The General Committee makes this supplementary Workshop a grant of 15 rupees per mensem.

The total payments by the General Committee to the Ladies' Committees were Rs. 3,158-1-6 made up as follows:—

	RS.	A.	P.
Rent to St. Thomé Workshop for one month.	15	0	0
Rent to Black Town Workshop for the year...	245	0	0
Supplementary Workshop	180	0	0
Share of Government Grant	1,199	4	0
Allowance for casual relief	1,518	13	6

Assistance to Chelsea Pensioners.—For some years past a number of the poorer European military pensioners, whose pensions are paid once a quarter, have been given small daily advances to enable them to keep out of debt: their house rent also has been paid for them. These advances have hitherto been punctually repaid on "pension day" by the Officer in charge of pensioners by stoppages from the men's pensions. During the year under report the sum of Rs. 2,874-6-6 was thus repaid by the pensioners. The system has been a great boon to these poor soldiers, but, at the request of the present Pension Officer, it has now to be discontinued, as he declines to make any further stoppages from the pensions paid through him.

Annual Meeting.—The Most Reverend Archbishop J. Colgan presided at the seventy-fourth annual meeting of the Society, which was held at the Victoria Public Hall on the 12th March 1894.

Changes during the year.—By their departure from Madras the General Committee lost the services of the Hon'ble Mr. W. P. Austin, I.C.S., and of Mr. C. Slater.

Office bearers.—The Hon'ble Mr. A. T. Arundel, I.C.S., Mr. B. H. Chester, M.A., and Mr. E. C. Woods-Scawen have

Conclusion.—The General Committee desires to thank the public for their continual support; the Members of the Ladies' and the Local Committees for their labours; the local Press for the gratuitous publication of the Society's advertisements; and the Chamber of Commerce for the use of its room for the monthly meetings of the Committee.

RULES

OF THE

Friend-in-Need Society.

I. The Society is denominated the FRIEND-IN-NEED SOCIETY, and all Subscribers to its funds are Members.

II. The business of the Society is conducted by a General and by Local Committees, elected at the Annual General Meeting; the General Committee having the power to elect its President, Secretary and Treasurer, and to fill up any vacancies in the General or Local Committees during the year.

III. The General Committee shall consist of thirty members, sixteen of whom shall be members not attached to any Local Committee. Each Local Committee shall within one month after the Annual General Meeting elect two of its members as members of the General Committee.

IV. The General Committee shall meet once a month; five to form a quorum. A special Meeting may at any time be called on a requisition addressed to the President and signed by three Members of the General Committee.

V. The objects of the Society are the relief of the deserving poor and the suppression of mendicity; and the means employed for the attainment of those objects are:— (1) the provision of an Asylum, called the FRIEND-IN-NEED SOCIETY'S HOME (established 1831), for the aged, infirm, and destitute, in which they are lodged, clothed, supplied with the material necessities for health and comfort, and receive a small daily allowance for food; (2) the allotment of pensions to aged and infirm persons in whose cases exceptional Circumstances exist rendering them fitter subjects for out-door than for in-door relief; (3) the establishment of a labour-yard to which members of the Society can refer all male beggars whose profession of willingness to work they desire to test; (4) the personal investigation of all the cases referred to the Society for relief; (5) the detection and exposure of imposture.

VI. The Town of Madras, with its suburbs, is divided into seven districts, each of which is under the management of its own Local Committee; so that every case is inspected on the spot, with all the advantages of local knowledge and inquiry. The Local Committees will be guided in all their operations by the orders of the General Committee and the standing Rules here laid down.

VII. The immediate subjects of the charity of the Society are resident European and East Indian Christians of every denomination, and of both sexes; who from old age, natural infirmity, or the ordinary misfortunes of life, are reduced to distress or necessity.

Natives, having the privilege of admission to the Monegar Choultry, do not come within the plan of this Society.

VIII. Persons not usually resident in Madras but coming from a distant station for the purpose of obtaining eleemosynary aid, are not admissible to the benefits of the Society.

IX. Persons found guilty of wilful deception, or who shall refuse to work, or to allow their children to work, or who, receiving support from the Society, shall be found begging, or leading a disorderly life, shall be considered to have forfeited their claim to aid from the Society.

X. Members are requested to refer all cases for investigation to the Paymaster of the Local Committee of the District in which the applicant resides. All applications for relief investigated by each Local Committee during the month are to be forwarded to the Secretary to be submitted at the next Meeting of the General Committee.

XI. In cases of extreme emergency, the Paymasters shall be at liberty to afford immediate temporary relief; but all such instances shall be reported to their respective Local Committees at their next meeting.

XII. The rate of allowance to all dependents of the Society shall be fixed by the General Committee with reference to a reasonable subsistence only, and no more.

XIII. The General Committee shall have the power of engaging such servants as may be found necessary, and of paying them such reasonable salaries as they may consider right.

XIV. The monthly expenditure for the ensuing half-year shall be limited by the General Committee, subject to such revision from time to time as the state of the funds may require.

XV. A General Meeting of Subscribers shall be held annually, at which shall be rendered a report of the proceedings of the Society, and of the state of the funds; previous to which the Society's accounts shall be duly audited.

XVI. All propositions brought forward, whether at the Annual General Meeting, or at the Proceedings of the Committees shall be decided by a majority of votes, the Chairman or President having only one vote and that a casting vote.

XVII. The Pension List will be revised half-yearly.

Rules for the Guidance of Local Committees.

I. Each Local Committee shall meet once a month for the payment of Pensioners and for the consideration of applications for relief—the Paymasters to be the convenors.

II. With a view to the prevention of fraud, the Local Committees shall meet on the same day, and at the same hour in each month, for the payment of Pensioners.

III. All applications for relief shall be personally investigated and reported upon by a Member of the Local Committee, and shall be forwarded by the Paymaster to the General Committee with the report and the specific recommendations of the Local Committee.

IV. The disbursements of the Local Committees are not to exceed the gross amount allotted to them by the General Committee.

Casual relief may be given to an individual for one month only. All applications for this must be made, unless in very exceptional cases, on the special form provided for the purpose, countersigned by some member of the Local Committee after personal enquiry into the case. If it is considered necessary to give the same person relief for a longer period, the case should be referred to the General Committee; and in sending in papers a month's allowance may be disbursed in advance as temporary relief.

V. An investigation into the circumstances of the paupers shall be made by the Local Committees at certain intervals, as they shall deem expedient, with a view to their identification, to the exposure of any imposition, and still further to ascertain whether by the improved condition of any of their immediate relatives, the Society may not be relieved of the expense of their support.

With this view every case should be reported upon at least once a year.

VI. Each Local Committee will record its monthly proceedings, and also keep a Register of its Pensioners, in the books supplied for these purposes.

VII. On the death of a Society's Pensioner, the Paymasters are authorized to incur the necessary expenditure for a plain funeral.

VIII. The Paymasters of the Local Committees will be furnished with blank Returns, one of which will be filled up monthly and forwarded to the Secretary for the information of the General Committee.

IX. Local Committees are particularly requested to be most careful in making payments to absentees; no such payments should be made without some Member of the Committee being able to vouch that no fraud is being practised.

RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR THE HOME.

Admissions and Re-admissions.

I. Destitute Europeans and Eurasians of both sexes are admitted into the Home by order in writing of the Honorary Secretary, or upon the request in writing of any member of the General or Home Committee or Paymaster of a District, or of any member of the Society subscribing not less than Rupees twenty-five annually, and by the Master, in case of any sudden or urgent necessity. Such admissions shall be subject to the order passed by the Honorary Secretary in each case after investigation.

II. No person shall be admitted who shall be found suffering from any infectious disease or complaint.

III. Each person on admission shall be required to take a bath, and shall not, until thoroughly cleansed, be passed into the inmates' quarters.

The several hours shall be announced by ringing a bell.

Discipline.

X. All inmates are required to conform to the General Rules of the Home, and to obey the directions of the Master and the Matron.

XI. The labour of inmates of the Home of both sexes shall be utilized as much as possible. They may be required to work during the day for four and a half hours. In some cases the Honorary Secretary may sanction a slight increase of allowance.*

XII. The Master and the Matron shall (subject to the directions of the Honorary Secretary) fix such hours for rising and going to bed, and such occupation and employment as may be suitable for the aged and infirm inmates and the children.

XIII. The children who are in the Home shall be sent daily to the school on the premises, and it shall be the duty of the Master and the Matron, and of the School Master, to endeavour to train them to habits of usefulness, industry, and virtue.

XIV. No inmate shall be allowed to have or use any wine, beer, or spirituous or fermented liquors unless by the direction in writing of the Medical Officer.

* The younger and stronger members shall make themselves useful to the old and infirm, under the orders of the Master and the Matron.

XV. Any inmate may quit the Home by giving the Master three hours' previous notice of his wish to do so, but no able bodied inmate having a family, shall so quit the Home without taking the whole of such family with him unless the Honorary Secretary shall otherwise direct.

XVI. Except for the purpose of attending Divine Service, inmates shall be allowed to leave the Home only between the hours of 6 and 11 A.M. and 4 and 6-30 P.M., but from 1st April to 30th September the time may be extended to 7 P.M.

XVII. No inmate of the Home shall be permitted to beg or solicit alms in any shape from the public, on pain of expulsion.

XVIII. The inmates will be mustered morning and evening.

XIX. Any inmate neglecting to observe any rule, or otherwise misbehaving, shall be liable to punishment, on the order of the Honorary Secretary.

XX. Cases of serious disorderly or refractory conduct shall be immediately reported by the Master to the Honorary Secretary.

XXI. No male inmate shall be allowed to enter the female quarters, nor any female inmate the male quarters. Under special circumstances, and as far as existing arrangements allow, elderly married people may be permitted to live together.

XXII. No servants shall be allowed on the premises except those of the Master and the Matron.

XXIII. The lamps shall be lit at sunset, lowered at 9 P.M., and extinguished at sun-rise.

XXIV. Inmates shall be required to keep their quarters clean.

XXV. The gate shall be kept closed between the hours of 11 A.M. and 4 P.M. No inmate shall be allowed to leave the premises within those hours without obtaining leave from the Master or the Matron.

XXVI. No inmate shall, as a rule, be expelled from the Home except by written order of the Honorary Secretary, but in very exceptional cases the Master may expel an inmate, reporting the circumstances to the Honorary Secretary; and every case of expulsion must be brought to the notice of the General Committee.

Inspections.

XXVII. One of the members of the Home Committee is expected to visit the Home in rotation at least once a week. The Visitor shall record his observations and remarks in a book kept for the purpose; and at each meeting of the General Committee such entries as have been made since the previous meeting shall be read.

XXVIII. A separate Visitor's book shall be kept for remarks of the members of the General Committee and others who may visit the Home. Such remarks after perusal and comment, if necessary by the Home Committee, shall also be read at the ordinary meetings of the General Committee.

Master's Duties.

The following shall be the duties of the Master:—

1. The master is placed under the orders of the Honorary Secretary, from whom he will receive all instructions regarding his office.

2. He will reside on the premises, in the quarters provided for his use, and devote his whole time and attention to the affairs of the Home.

3. He will be held responsible for the whole of the Home property, stock, money, and work placed under his charge, together with all the books and records of the Society, and will provide for their safe custody; he will also render an account of the same whenever required by the Honorary Secretary.

4. He will not be authorized to incur any expense on account of the Society, except such as is sanctioned by the Honorary Secretary.

5. He will receive persons into the Home, cause them to be examined by the Medical Officer, and to be cleansed and clothed according to the regulations.

6. He will enforce industry, order, punctuality, and cleanliness, and observance of the rules by the inmates.

7. He shall carefully attend to the health and cleanliness of the inmates, and of the premises.

8. He shall report daily in his order book all matters of interest or importance as they may occur.

9. He will superintend and direct the execution of all work required to be done on behalf of the Home; he will also provide suitable work for, and enforce the employment of, all inmates able to work.

10. He will keep the partially disabled inmates occupied to the extent of their ability.

11. He will visit the quarters of the male inmates every day, at 6-30 A.M. from the 1st of April to the 1st October, and at 7 A.M. from 1st of October to 1st April.

12. He will go over the said quarters and see that they have been properly cleaned out and ventilated.

13. He will visit the said quarters at the hour prescribed for retiring and see that the inmates are all in bed, and that unnecessary lamps are extinguished.

14. He will receive from the gate-keeper the key of the gate after the last bell, and deliver it to him at daylight every morning.

15. He will not allow any property belonging to the Society to be removed from the premises without a pass signed by himself.

16. He will send for the Medical Officer in case any inmate is taken ill.

17. He will keep the following books, which shall be constantly open to the inspection of any of the members of the Home or General Committee :—

- (a) An admission and discharge book.
- (b) An order book in which shall be entered all matters requiring to be brought to the notice of the Honorary Secretary.
- (c) General Ledger showing the daily expenditure throughout the month.
- (d) Issue of clothing to inmates.
- (e) A Visitor's book for the remarks of members of the Home Committee.
- (f) A Casual Visitor's book.

Matron's Duties.

The following shall be the duties of the Matron of the Home :—

1. To provide for and enforce the employment of able bodied female inmates, and to keep the partially disabled occupied to the extent of their ability.
2. To visit the female quarters every night and ascertain that the inmates are in bed, and that all unnecessary lights are extinguished.
3. To pay particular attention to the moral conduct and ordinary behaviour of the female inmates and children.
4. To see that they are clean and decent in their dress and person.
5. To take charge of all clothing and linen belonging to the Home.

6. To superintend generally the making of new and mending of old clothing.

7. To assist the Master in the general management and superintendence of the Home, and specially enforcing the observance of good order, cleanliness, and decency of demeanour among the female inmates.

8. To see that the female inmates are cleansed and clothed on their admission.

9. To see that the female quarters are kept clean and well ventilated.

Gate-Keeper's Duties.

The following shall be the duty of the gate-keeper :—

1. To keep the gate and to suffer no unauthorized person to enter or go out of the premises without leave of the Master or Matron.
2. To examine all parcels before they are passed in or out of the premises ; to prevent the admission of any spirituous or fermented liquors, and to guard against the removal of any article belonging to the Home.
3. To search any person whom he may suspect to have possession of any spirituous or fermented liquor.
4. To lock the gate, and to take the key to the Master at the hour appointed every night.
5. To assist in preserving order and in enforcing obedience and due subordination.
6. To report to the Master all cases of misconduct on the part of the inmates of which he may become cognisant.

The foregoing Rules and Regulations for the Home are intended for general guidance, but it is understood that the Honorary Secretary has the fullest discretion in the application and enforcement of the Rules, and the general management of the Home.

RULES FOR THE FRIEND-IN-NEED SOCIETY'S WOMEN'S WORKSHOPS.

I.—The Committee of the Workshop shall consist of not more than 13 members, including an Honorary Secretary and an Honorary Treasurer. Four members shall form a quorum.

II.—As soon as possible after the Annual Meeting of the Society, each Committee shall elect one of the members of the General Committee of the Society as President to represent it on the General Committee of the Society.

III.—Members not attending Committee Meetings for six successive months shall be considered as having withdrawn.

IV.—The Ladies' Committee shall meet on a fixed day in every month. The Honorary Secretary shall send round due notice of the same.

V.—Each member of the Committee in weekly rotation, with the exception of the Honorary Secretary and Honorary Treasurer, who are exempted from duty, shall visit the Workshop once during her week, and also attend on Friday afternoon to pay the women, the Honorary Secretary giving due notice when the time of visiting begins and ends. Should the lady visitor not be able to visit the Workshop during the week, and also on Friday to pay wages, she must give due notice to the Honorary Secretary, so that some one else may be appointed.

VI.—No fine worker shall be allowed to go out to work without the sanction of the Honorary Secretary.

VII.—Members of the Committee may inspect the shop at any time during working hours and shall enter their names in the book kept for that purpose.

VIII.—The objects of this charity shall be resident European and Eurasian Christian females of every denomination

IX.—The Society's Women's Workshops shall, up to a number to be fixed by the General Committee in respect of each shop, be open to all applicants for employment coming within the description in Rule VIII of the Society.

X.—Applications for admission or re-admission to the Workshop shall be made to the Honorary Secretary of the Workshop and shall be countersigned by the paymaster of the District in which the applicant resides, or by the Honorary Secretary of the General Committee.

XI.—The case of any applicant to whom admission is refused shall be forthwith referred by the Honorary Secretary of the Workshop through its President, to the General Committee.

XII.—Women attending the Workshop, who from old age or infirmity shall become incapable of work, shall be transferred to the General Committee for a pension.

XIII.—No work shall be taken back to be altered after it has once left the shop, provided the directions sent with the order have been attended to; and no article taken on inspection and kept for three days can be received back. This rule applies only to Madras.

XIV.—The Committees of the several Workshops shall be treated as Local Committees for all women on the rolls of these Workshops, and shall in this respect be under the "Rules for the guidance of Local Committees" except that casual relief may be granted to the same individual, if actually at work in the shops, for more than one month without reference to the General Committee.

XV.—Those women in receipt of relief under Rule XIV who shall absent themselves for more than one day in the week shall forfeit their week's allowance, unless they can

6.—The women shall have their names, or numbers distinctly written in pencil on the work.

7.—When a woman has finished a piece of work, she will take it to the Superintendent to be examined. If approved, the Superintendent will enter it under the woman's name and number in the weekly work book, but if not properly done, she will give it back to be done again. If the woman refuses to do this the Superintendent will give it to another to rectify, who will receive the full price for the work.

8.—If any difficulty shall arise concerning the price of work, the Superintendent shall refer to one of the Ladies of the Committee, who will take means to ascertain what would be a fair remunerating price for the piece of work.

9.—When work is sent to the Shop, the Superintendent shall examine it at once, and see that all the articles are correct as specified in the note accompanying it, and give a receipt accordingly, mentioning if anything be deficient; the Superintendent shall then enter the work with the direction in the book kept for that purpose.

10.—The weekly account of work shall be closed on Thursday evening, ready for payment on Friday.

11.—A godown is to be provided for the infants and children under three years of age with a woman in charge, and they are on no account to be allowed into the work-room. Older children are not to be admitted into the Workshop premises.

12.—Each woman is to come up for her own pay: the women must be called up by name.

13.—Food provided for the women must be eaten on the premises.

C. SLATER, Esq., PRESIDENT.

In submitting the yearly Report and Accounts for the above Workshop, the Committee have the pleasure to announce that the change of locality and Superintendent referred to in the last report have proved very successful, and reference to the accounts will show that the year's working of the shop has resulted in a balance of Rs. 785-14-10 in nett assets, as against Rs. 321-15-4 in 1893. Sales aggregating Rs. 14,568-10-2 have been made during the year, and the average number of women employed for the same period was 75, their earning amounting to Rs. 2,426-2-8.

The Committee regret to find that the subscriptions and donations to the Charity Branch have fallen off, these having only totalled Rs. 360 for the year while the expenditure on meals for the women and children, schooling for the latter, and the wages of a dhoby amount to Rs. 846-11-0.

The usual presents of clothing were given to the women at Midsummer. The Christmas subscriptions realised Rs. 176, to which the Central Charity Committee added Rs. 75 making Rs. 251 in all. With this the women received presents of money and clothing at Christmas, which were kindly distributed by H. E. Lady Wenlock.

The Committee desire to place on record their satisfaction at the way the work of the shop has been carried on by the Superintendent and Assistant Superintendent, who have by their energy and attention to the work contributed to the successful results of the year, and have enabled the Committee to materially reduce establishment wages.

While thanking the public for their support, both by their subscriptions and orders for work, the Committee wish to point out that as the main object of the Workshop is to find work for the women, they trust that the public will continue to send in orders for both fine and coarse work, so that the women may be kept constantly employed.

The thanks of the Committee are due to Mr. Peebles who has kindly audited the accounts.

C. M. CONINGTON,
Honorary Secretary.

REPORT
OF THE
LADIES' COMMITTEE
OF THE
FRIEND-IN-NEED SOCIETY'S
EGMORE WOMEN'S WORKSHOP, FOR 1894.

Committee.

Mrs. ALLISON.	Mrs. MACPHAIL.

Mrs. HENDERSON.	Mrs. SOWDEN.
Mrs. JACKSON.	Mrs. SPRING-BRANSON.
Mrs. COX, (Hon. Treasurer.)	Mrs. VAN GEYZEL, (Hon. Secy.)

The Committee have the pleasure to report that the past year has been a prosperous one, and that the financial position of the Workshops has much improved. With heavy liabilities to meet, owing to losses on the previous year's working, the outlook, at the beginning of the year under review, was very serious, and a special appeal to the Public seem inevitable but, by thoroughly overhauling the internal working and introducing changes which seemed desirable, such a contingency has been avoided. This entailed no small anxiety, during the year, upon the ladies of the Committee, but they feel amply rewarded by the success which has so far followed their endeavours. They are glad to be in a position to report that the financial result of the year's working has been to increase the nett assets (which stood at only Rs. 182-4-9 on 1st January 1894) to Rs. 901-2-10.

The year opened with 73 women on the roll of the Workshop, and vacancies which occurred among them were duly filled by the admission of deserving applicants, after enquiry into their individual cases. The working strength has, as far as possible, been maintained at this figure, and the year, therefore, closes with the same number as it began with. Their earnings during the year amounted to Rs. 2,310-14-7, which is slightly in excess of the amount earned in the previous year.

There has been an increase in the numbers of donors and subscribers to the Workshop, the amount collected from them being Rs. 577 against Rs. 519 in the previous year. The subscriptions at Christmas also were more liberal—Rs. 192 having been subscribed against Rs. 100 at Christmas 1893, and, aided by a small contribution from the Central Charity Committee, the funds at the disposal of the Committee permitted of the customary Christmas gifts being made to the women. They have received the usual daily ration of bread and coffee throughout the year; but, considering the financial position of the Workshop in the early part of the year, the Committee did not feel justified in giving the women the usual Midsummer gifts, which have always been borne by the Workshop funds unaided by special collection for the purpose. Relief has been afforded to women in need of it on account of domestic occurrences, and in the cases of women who have, at various times, been unavoidably prevented from earning full wages. The payment of pensioners on the Workshop books and of casual relief to indifferent workers, which was formerly carried out by the Local Committee, was, at the beginning of the year, transferred to the Workshop Committee. Although this has increased their duties, the system is a far more effective way of ensuring that casual relief reaches those who are most in need of it, and the special funds placed monthly at the Committee's disposal for this purpose, have been most carefully employed with this end in view.

The Committee were reluctantly compelled, on account of want of funds, to discontinue the monthly allowance of Rs. 20 to Mrs. Firth's School, on behalf of the four children who had, till then, been supported from the funds of this Workshop.

The Committee desire to express their thanks to Mr. Wake, who very kindly went over the accounts at the close of the half year, (in June), in order that the Committee might ascertain the financial result of the working changes which they had introduced; and also to Mr. Peebles, who, at very short notice, so readily assisted them by auditing their accounts for the whole year.

The Committee also desire to thank those ladies and gentlemen who have kindly contributed funds, and given orders for work, and so enabled the Committee to tide over a critical year. They venture to hope that the help, so generously afforded, will be continued. The workshop is entirely self-supporting, except for subscriptions from the Public and a grant from Government equal to half of the amount of these subscriptions.

Honorary Secretary.

By the continued kindness of friends the Workshop has been able to keep out of debt and show a balance in hand at the close of the year, though the latter is less by Rs. 134 than it was at the end of last year. This is to be accounted for by the Workshop having paid the entire rent of the premises, which was hitherto paid by the Parent Society, and also by the loss of the Government Grant on subscriptions in February, which the Friend-in-Need Society was unable to give, and by the sale of work being Rs. 113 less than last year. These causes combined have more than counterbalanced the excess in subscriptions of Rs. 31, the total receipts being Rs. 277-8-0 less than in 1893. On the other hand the workers have received Rs. 210 more in earnings, food, and rewards, and the materials for work have involved an outlay of Rs. 84 in excess of last year. The cost of some needed repairs, and of new books that also had to be paid for, raised the total expenditure to Rs. 92-9-10 above that in 1893.

Mrs. Merriman kindly gave the workers a tea at her house in February, and they had some money given them by the E. and A. I. Association on October 7th. Miss Gell kindly distributed the Christmas clothing and presents to the workers and establishment on December 21st.

The Committee take this opportunity of thanking the good friends who have shewn a practical interest in the Workshop, and Mr. Hall for his kindness in having again this year audited the accounts.

F. ROWLANDSON, Esq.—President.

The Committee regret that the workshop has not done so well during the year as could be desired. In the report for 1893 the falling off in the orders for work was alluded to and it is to be regretted that a further decrease is shown in 1894. In consequence of the orders for work having been insufficient to cover the expenses of the shop the nett assets which at the end of 1893 stood at Rs. 678-1-0 have fallen to Rs. 622-3-7. The earnings of the women for the year amounted to Rs. 680-15-4, and as there were 37 employed, the average amount earned by each was only Rs. 1-8-0 per month. Many of the women are solely dependent on their earnings at the shop for their maintenance and this sum it need scarcely be said, is quite inadequate. The funds placed at the disposal of the Committee have not been sufficient to enable them to assist the women as they desired to do when, as happened frequently, there was no work for them at the shop.

With the kind assistance of friends, to whom the Committee beg to offer their sincere thanks, the women were given a supply of clothing just before Christmas and presented with a rupee each. They and their children were also given a good breakfast.

Appended is a list of the subscriptions received during the year, and the thanks of the Committee are tendered to those Ladies and Gentlemen who have so willingly subscribed to the workshop, and also to those who by giving orders for work have assisted in finding employment for some of the poor of the Black Town district.

The Committee in conclusion earnestly desire the help of the charitably disposed in giving work to the deserving poor who have shown themselves so willing to work. The Committee desire to place on record their grateful recognition of the excellent services rendered to the workshop by Mrs. Edwards as its Hon. Secretary and Treasurer.

(On behalf of the Committee.)

F. ROWLANDSON,
President.

REPORT

OF THE
SUPPLEMENTARY WORKSHOP,
CHRIST CHURCH SCHOOL ROOM,
MOUNT ROAD.

The Workshop has continued its work during the past year—the women and girls meeting twice a week, on Tuesdays and Fridays. The help given to the poor is much needed.

In the sewing class the girls are instructed in different kinds of needlework. The women make their own clothes. They also do work for kind friends, requiring their aid.

I am much indebted to Mrs. Fred : Rodgers who kindly acted in superintending the workshop during my eight months' absence from Madras.

A New Year's meal was given to 29 women and 8 girls at a cost of 8 annas per head from a contribution given by the Christmas Central Charity Committee.
