No. 47

Presidency Magistrates' Court,

Egmore, Madras, 4 March 1895

FROM

O. R. Jones Esq.

Quf Presidency Magistrate,
Madras,

TO

The Honble Mr J. J. (Kie), Chief Secretary to Government, Fort St. George.

Sir,

I have the honor to request the orders of Government as to whether Government Order No. 126 Public, dated 17 February 1895 is to be strictly applied to Presidency Magistrate's Courts as well as to all public offices.

2- The list of holidays published in the above Government Order differs very little from that observed in these Courts except as to the last Saturday of the month. It has not been the custom to close the Courts for this holiday and it would be inconvenient to do so because the next day being Sunday there would be a large accumulation of

for the Monday - Instead of taking this holiday it has been the practice not to post private prosecutions for Saturdays, but only to take Police night cases and charge sheets and any other emergent work. It has been found that one magistrate sitting at Egmore and another at Black Town have been sufficient for this work. By this means each magistrate gets a day off every other Saturday - it can hardly be called a holiday as he usually has some judgments to write or other work to do. The work of these courts is rarely if ever in arrears and the above system has been found to work well. I would therefore most respectfully request that Government may be pleased to sanction the continuance of the present arrangement as regards the Saturday holiday.

I have the honor to be,
 Sir,
 Your most obedt servant,

P. L. M.

Chief Presidency Magistrate
