Reference. Para 3 of G.O. No. 351 Public, dated 25th April 1891, communicated with G.O. No. 3098 Revenue, dated 23rd May 1891 regarding Government servants taking the benefit of the Insolvent Act.

Sir,

I have the honor to report that Mr. M. D. Highland, Compositor, in the Central Survey Office, pay Rs 40 has, with my permission taken the benefit of the Insolvent Act and has been granted a free discharge by the Court.

He borrowed at different times during 11 years altogether Rs 1057-4-4 for which he had to sign bonds amounting to Rs 2175 on which the Court decreed recovery from his pay, of Rs 2576-13-1. He actually paid Rs 1774-9-5 for the Rs 1057-4- that he received and when he applied for the benefit of the Act there still remained unpaid out of the total amount decreed Rs 802-3-8 in addition to Rs 373-7-3 balance due on bonds for Rs 375 not enforced by decree of Court and for which he only received in cash Rs 85.

3. In these circumstances I did not consider it necessary to suspend him pending the order of the Court and I beg to recommend that he may be allowed to remain in the service till the 1st April 1895 when he will be discharged on reduction of establishment.

The following documents are submitted

1. Insolvent's Schedule and Petition
2. Discharge order
3. Judge's Mtr.

Insolvent compositor
W. D. Highland.

Pay 40%. Debt 1176/.

The schedule shows that the man was a reckless borrower, but as he will be discharged on the 1st April next it is subd. he may be retained in service till then as recomd.
by the Supt. Rev. Survey 3513. No explanation is given as to why this man borrowed as he did: he seems to have some long standing debts. The affair has been going on for some time and in consequence the whole of the amount of the bond has come upon him - he has but a very short time longer to serve and it is submitted that he may be allowed to remain on till the debt is paid (1st April)

4/3/95

Yes - But I thought that some little time ago we saw powered heads of depts to deal with these insolvency cases, except of forgotten affairs.

7/3/95

The order the Supt. has made is a good one. It is to "indulge" the man in his borrowing.
