PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—again the following papers:—

G.O., dated 9th August 1879, No. 1228, Public.

ABSTRACT.—Communicating to all Heads of Departments, &c., for information and guidance, despatch from Secretary of State forwarding copy of a circular issued by the Government of India containing instructions on the subject of appointing natives of India to an increasing majority of higher offices in the Uncovenanted Service, &c., and requesting that the principles laid down in the circular may be applied also in the Madras Presidency.

G.O., dated 16th January 1880, No. 64, Public.

ABSTRACT.—Communicating, for information and guidance, endorsement of Government of India forwarding copy of despatch from Secretary of State intimating that the orders with respect to the employment of Natives in the higher appointments of the Uncovenanted Service were intended to comprise temporary and permanent appointments.

G.O., dated 7th July 1893, No. 476, Educational.

ABSTRACT.—Communicating to all Departments of the Secretariat, &c., letter from the Government of India stating that the orders in paragraph 4 of letter, dated 10th November 1892, No. 2194, to the effect that the Government of India's sanction, instead of the Secretary of State's, would in future be sufficient for the appointment of Europeans who are not Statutory Natives of India to offices carrying a salary of Rs. 200 a month and upwards, are to be taken to be of general application.

READ—also the following paper:—

From J. P. HEWETT, Esq., C.I.E., Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Public), to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Bengal, dated Calcutta, the 28th January 1895, No. 1 Pub.—92-99.

I am directed to invite attention to the endorsement from this office, No. 1—43-55, dated the 9th January 1880, with which was circulated a despatch from the Secretary of State for India, No. 107 (Public), dated the 6th November 1879. That despatch explained that the orders, which require the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council to the appointment of a person other than a Native of India on a salary of Rs. 200 and upwards, were intended to comprise temporary as well as permanent appointments, but that in emergent cases the relaxation of this rule rested with Local Governments. These orders have been embodied in the Civil Account Code, Volume II, as Article 773 (A).

2. A case has recently been reported to the Government of India in which a Local Government appointed a person who was not a Native of India, and held that as the appointment was made on an emergency for a few months only, it was not necessary to report the appointment for the sanction of the Government of India. I am directed to say that the orders of the Secretary of State of 6th November 1879 only empower Local Governments to make temporary appointments of Europeans on an emergency without obtaining the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council, which is required under paragraph 3 of the Circular of 18th April 1879. The discretion as to confirming an order making such a temporary appointment is vested in the Governor-General in Council, and any temporary appointment made on the ground of emergency should be reported for his confirmation immediately on its being made.
