GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From the Honourable Mr. D. DUNCAN, M.A., D.Sc., Director of Public Instruction, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 14th March 1895, No. 3020.

I have the honour to submit, for the approval of Government and publication, a draft notification in connection with the Provincial Civil Service Examination for 1895-96.

2. The corrections ordered in G.O., dated 29th October 1894, No. 805, Public, have been carried out in the draft notification, and to clause (i) of paragraph 4 has been appended a note to correspond with that in the revised notification regarding the Provincial Civil Service published in the last issue of the Fort St. George Gazette.

3. Assuming that Government will be prepared to admit to the ensuing examination candidates who have not graduated in a vernacular language, but who pass the third-class vernacular test prescribed for European and Eurasian Civil officers in July next, I have inserted a provision to this effect in the draft notification and also provided for the refund of fees should they fail to pass the vernacular test—vide G.O., dated 5th April 1894, No. 225.

4. I presume that only two appointments will be thrown open to competition in the current year.

5. Particulars relating to the passing of the B.A. degree examination in the different divisions have been omitted in the form of application as they do not seem to be necessary now.

ORDER—dated 19th March 1895, No. 204, Public.

The notification will be published in the Fort St. George Gazette, the provision for the refund of fees of candidates who may fail to pass the vernacular test in July being omitted.

2. The Surgeon-General will arrange, in communication with the Director of Public Instruction, for the assembly of the medical board.

3. In forwarding the tabular statement referred to in rule XII (13) of those for admission to the Madras Provincial Civil Service, the Director of Public Instruction will mention the two candidates at the top of the list by name, indicating the remainder by their register numbers only.

APPENDIX.

PROVINCIAL CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION—1895-96.

Two appointments in the Madras Provincial Civil Service will be offered for competition during the current year, and for this purpose an examination will be held in Madras in August 1895.

2. The examination will be conducted by a Board to be appointed by Government, consisting of a President, three members and a Secretary. The Board will have the power of appointing additional examiners to assist in the examination, if necessary.

3. The examination will be open to all persons being British subjects or the subjects of Native Princes in alliance with Her Majesty who have qualified for the degree of Bachelor of Arts in the Madras University, provided that they furnish satisfactory evidence as to age, physique, moral character and knowledge of a vernacular language, and succeed in passing a Medical Board as hereinafter laid down.

4. Applications for admission to the examination in the form prescribed must reach Mr. G. H. Stuart, the Secretary to the Board of Examiners, not later than the 30th April next. Each candidate must forward with his application the following:—

(i) a certificate that his age will be under 25 and over 20 years on the 31st July 1895;

Note.—This certificate should take the form either of a certified extract from an official register of births or of baptisms, or of a solemn declaration before a Magistrate accompanied by a copy and translation of the candidate's horoscope.

(ii) a certificate from a gazetted medical officer "that he has no disease, constitutional affection, or bodily infirmity, unfitting him, or likely to unfit him, for Government service" and that he has been vaccinated or has had small-pox;

(iii) a certificate from the head or heads of the college or colleges in which he studied for his degree to the effect that he has borne a good moral character;

(iv) satisfactory proof that he has either passed the third-class vernacular test prescribed for European and Eurasian civil officers other than members of the Indian Civil Service, or has graduated in a vernacular language.

Applications from candidates not satisfying clause (iv) will be accepted, subject to the condition that such candidates pass the third-class vernacular test prescribed for European and Eurasian civil officers other than members of the Indian Civil Service at the examination to be held in July 1895.

5. No candidate will be registered unless he have previously paid a fee of 50 rupees. The fee should be paid into a Government treasury and the fee receipt must be forwarded with the application for admission to the examination. The fee of candidates who fail to pass the Medical Board will be returned to them.

6. Candidates whose certificates are satisfactory will be required to appear before a Medical Board to be assembled by the Surgeon-General at such time and place as Government may direct. Only such candidates as are certified by the Medical Board to be possessed of an exceptionally good physique and to be specially fitted for the active duties of a Revenue officer will be admitted to the examination.

7. Candidates who have passed the Medical Board will be informed of the fact by the Secretary to the Board of Examiners, and will be furnished in due course with a time-table of the examination.

8. The following is the scheme of the examination:—

PROVINCIAL CIVIL SERVICE EXAMINATION—1895-96.

Two appointments in the Madras Provincial Civil Service will be offered for competition during the current year, and for this purpose an examination will be held in Madras in August 1895.

2. The examination will be conducted by a Board to be appointed by Government, consisting of a President, three members and a Secretary. The Board will have the power of appointing additional examiners to assist in the examination, if necessary.

3. The examination will be open to all persons being British subjects or the subjects of Native Princes in alliance with Her Majesty who have qualified for the degree of Bachelor of Arts in the Madras University, provided that they furnish satisfactory evidence as to age, physique, moral character and knowledge of a vernacular language, and succeed in passing a Medical Board as hereinafter laid down.

4. Applications for admission to the examination in the form prescribed must reach Mr. G. H. Stuart, the Secretary to the Board of Examiners, not later than the 30th April next. Each candidate must forward with his application the following:—

- (i) a certificate that his age will be under 25 and over 20 years on the 31st July 1895;

Note.—This certificate should take the form either of a certified extract from an official register of births or of baptisms, or of a solemn declaration before a Magistrate accompanied by a copy and translation of the candidate's horoscope.

(ii) a certificate from a gazetted medical officer "that he has no disease, constitutional affection, or bodily infirmity, unfitting him, or likely to unfit him, for Government service" and that he has been vaccinated or has had small-pox;

(iii) a certificate from the head or heads of the college or colleges in which he studied for his degree to the effect that he has borne a good moral character;

(iv) satisfactory proof that he has either passed the third-class vernacular test prescribed for European and Eurasian civil officers other than members of the Indian Civil Service, or has graduated in a vernacular language.

Applications from candidates not satisfying clause (iv) will be accepted, subject to the condition that such candidates pass the third-class vernacular test prescribed for European and Eurasian civil officers other than members of the Indian Civil Service at the examination to be held in July 1895.

5. No candidate will be registered unless he have previously paid a fee of 50 rupees. The fee should be paid into a Government treasury and the fee receipt must be forwarded with the application for admission to the examination. The fee of candidates who fail to pass the Medical Board will be returned to them.

6. Candidates whose certificates are satisfactory will be required to appear before a Medical Board to be assembled by the Surgeon-General at such time and place as Government may direct. Only such candidates as are certified by the Medical Board to be possessed of an exceptionally good physique and to be specially fitted for the active duties of a Revenue officer will be admitted to the examination.

7. Candidates who have passed the Medical Board will be informed of the fact by the Secretary to the Board of Examiners, and will be furnished in due course with a time-table of the examination.
