From

Colonel ELPHINSTONE BEGBIE,

Officiating Adjutant General,

To Chief The
The SECRETARY to GOVERNMENT, of Madras.
Military Department.

SIR,

ENCLOSURES.

Embodied in Proceedings of Government, Mil.
Military Department,
No: 1637 dated 19th
March 1895.

I have the honor to suggest for your consideration that from the first proximo, when arrangements are required to be made at Madras for Guards of Honor, Salutes or any ceremonial function, you should while telegraphing, or writing to me as required by telegram No: 9912 dated 16th March 1895 from the Government of India, at the same time send a copy of your letter, or message, to the General Officer Commanding Madras District for his information.

2. Should you approve of this suggestion the General Officer Commanding Madras District will be instructed to act on this copy precisely as if it were an order emanating from Command Head Quarters.

3. This procedure is now adopted by the Secretary to Government Military Department.

in its continuance will not only economise time, but the money spent on repeating your telegrams to Madras will be saved.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Wm. B. Begbie

COLONEL,

Officer in Charge Adjutant General.
