Sir,
I beg to enquire whether you can move Government and get a Petition addressed to the Parliament of Great Britain and Ireland presented to that body formally in view of the subject-matter thereof receiving due consideration and disposal at its hands.

This Petition is drawn by the Viswakula Community on the lines of similar petitions presented to Parliament by the Mahomedan and Pariah Communities in the common interests of the Indian Empire, opposing the intentions and aims of the so-called 'Indian National Congress'.

It was duly adopted by a large caste meeting of the Viswakula community held on the 22^d December 1894 and, under a
