3. The details given in the schedule show that since 1891 he has been reckless in incurring debts on his own account, and in putting his signature to bonds jointly with other persons. There is nothing stated in his Cause of Insolvency, or known to the Superintendent, to show that his circumstances were exceptionally desperate, and the Superintendent therefore can make no recommendation in his behalf.

Nineteen years' service

Insolvent attributes his liabilities to debts due in the family. The Supt. is unable to make any recommendation in his behalf, and it is submitted he did most certainly get rid of.

It appears from his schedule that he was associated in loans with the following men:
G. W. Major; C. M. Brisson;
J. X. Moser; M. Trivett;
J. Peters; A. Aubert;
A. Grubert; S. D'Silva;
and W. J. Lewis.

It has been ascertained that all these men - with the exception of Aubert - are at present in the Press. The system of lending signatures

apparently prevails
throughout the Press
est. and it would be
a good thing if steps
were taken to stop it.

As these men's names
have come up in connection with an insolvency matter they
might well be called
on for a statement of
their liabilities.

It is possible that the three young men now
serving time for forgery were prompted to their
crime by demands
from money lenders
or fellow employees.

I am afraid that what is stated in this note regarding the lending of names in the Press is correct.
Please see Q.O's No. 701 dated 11/11/90 and Q.O's No.
998 dated 26/11/91. (Please marked with file; also list in Q.O. No. 236 dated 27.3.90.
It will be seen that several of the names mentioned in this note have been mentioned in the Press.

a Proof-Reader in this office, for the consideration of Government.

Order 19 April 1895. N. 290A.

The Govt. agrees with the Supt. The insolvent proofreader G. J. Jacob has been most reckless in his pecuniary affairs.
He will be removed from the service forthwith.

2. The schedule dis-closes the fact that the insolvent ^{he} had monetary joint transactions with the following men who are, it is understood,
employed at the Govt
Press:-

- (1) G. W. Major; (2) C. M. Bris-son; (3) J. Moses; (4) M.
Trivett; (5) J. Peters;
(6) A. Grubert; (7) S. D'Silva
and (8) W. J. Lewis.

The names of some of these men have been before Govt already in connection with ^{the copies of} ~~petition~~ ^{the Insolvency of J. S. F.} ~~repetition of the Govt~~
The Supt
will call upon each one of them to submit a statement of his liabilities

apparently prevails
throughout the Press
est. and it would be

As these men's names
have come up in con-
their liabilities.

three young men now
doing time for forgery
crime by demands
or fellow employees.

lending of names in the Press is correct.

men mentioned in this note have had their names before G.O. No. before. It would be desirable to ascertain the facts for a statement of the Press.
