GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From J. P. HEWETT, Esq., C.I.E., Officiating Secretary to the Government of India, Home Department (Public), to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Simla, the 30th May 1895, No. 9-Public—854.

The orders contained in this department's circular letter, No. 21—746—753, dated the 18th April 1879, prohibit the appointment of a person other than a native of India to an office carrying a salary of Rs. 200 a month or upwards, without the previous sanction of the Governor-General in Council in each case, except under one or other of the conditions mentioned in paragraph 3 of that letter. The Governor-General in Council has recently considered the question whether the appointment of a European to a post on a progressive pay rising from Rs. 150 to Rs. 200 requires the sanction of the Government of India, and is of opinion that, although in such cases Rs. 200 is the pay which may eventually be drawn by the incumbent, it cannot be correctly regarded as the pay "carried" by the appointment, which must in ordinary course always return to the minimum or a little above it, and the average of which must necessarily be less than Rs. 200. His Excellency in Council has accordingly decided that the appointment of persons who are not natives of India on a progressive salary which may rise to a maximum of Rs. 200 does not require the sanction of the Governor-General in Council under the orders above cited.

ORDER—dated 14th June 1895, No. 480, Public.

Communicated to the Departments of the Secretariat, the Honourable the Judges of the High Court, and to Heads of Departments under the Chief Secretary.

SIR,

THE orders contained in this Department's Circular letter No. 21
746-753 dated the 18th April 1895, prohibit the appointment of a person other than a native of India to an office carrying a salary of Rs. 200 a month or upwards, without the previous sanction of the Governor General in Council in each case, except under one or other of the conditions mentioned in paragraph 3 of that letter. The Governor General in Council has recently considered the question whether the appointment of a European to a post on a progressive pay rising from Rs. 150 to Rs. 200 requires the sanction of the Government of India, and is of opinion that although in such cases Rs. 200 is the pay which may eventually be drawn by the incumbent it cannot be correctly regarded as the pay "carried" by the appointment which must in ordinary course always return to the minimum or a little above it, and the average of which must necessarily be less than Rs. 200. His Excellency in Council has accordingly decided that the appointment of persons who are not natives of India on a progressive salary which may rise to a maximum of Rs. 200 does not require the sanction of the Governor General in Council under the orders above cited.

I have the honour to be,

SIR,
