WITH

To

The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
Madras.

The humble petition of Chitturi Veeriah the late Tapal Runner of Madduru Tanuku Taluq.
Godavari District.

SHOWETH.

That your petitioner served from 30 years as a Tapal Runner in this District and was afterwards obliged to give up his post owing to his fall which caused him an harnea on a certain night in the month of January 1891.

2. That your petitioner further states that he had produced a certificate from the District Doctor to that effect.

3. That your petitioner petitioned the Post Master General several times before this, requesting to grant him pension, but received only endorsement Stating that they are going to fulfill his request after receiving the necessary information of my service from my superiors.

4. That your petitioner further submit that owing to the enmity with his overseer one of his superiors, who did a great mischief in informing of his full service to his departmental superiors.

5. The petitioner therefore prays the Honorable Government to take steps in the matter and kindly allow him pension for his long and tedious service in the Government.
