Camp Coltiam, the 19 June 1895.

SIR,

With reference to para 3 of G.O. d. 28 May 1895. No. 425 Public just received, have the honor to reply as follows:

2. I have not with me the certificates referred to in para 3 of Mr. du Maine's letter of the 13 March last, but they were deposited in my office on or about the date mentioned therein, viz 6 March 1894. These certificates are required by section 34 of the Christian Marriage Act to be sent through the Registrar of the District, and the

to do so in the present instance was oversight in my office, as already stated, noticed at once. All returns and certificates of marriages of European Christians received from the various authorities for each quarter are collected together and transmitted to the Secretary of State under section 81 of the Act. The returns and certificates thus transmitted are, (1) returns of marriages solemnized by clergymen of the Church of England and Scotland forwarded by the Registrar of the Diocese under sections 27 and 31; (2) returns of marriages solemnized by the clergymen of the Church of Rome and forwarded under section 30; (3) certificates of marriages solemnized by licensed ministers or by ministers episcopally ordained but not belonging to the Church of England or Rome and received through a Marriage Registrar under section 36; and (4) certificates of marriages solemnized before a Marriage Registrar and forwarded under section 55. Of these several returns and certificates received for the first quarter of 1894, those from the Registrar of the Diocese were the last received, and they were received during the Christmas holidays in December 1894. After the reopening of the office, when the file was complete the returns and certificates were again examined in view to ^{their transmission to} the Secretary of State, and it was discovered that the certificates in question had not passed through a Marriage Registrar; and the Reverend Mr. Gilling was asked on the 17th January 1895 to rectify the omission. This is what what I endeavoured to explain in my former letter and I regret that I had not put the matter as clearly as could be wished.

I have the honor to be

Yr

Yours most obedient servant
