The Superintendent of Stationary
Madras

Respected Sir.

I respectfully beg to inform your honor that as I had some urgent private business to attend, I left the office yesterday at 12.30 A.M. with a view to return in an hour.

In the meantime I am given to understand that there is a writ of warrent against my person for about Rs 400- which is due to my ignorance in giving joint signature to my maternal uncle.

As I ~~am~~ now intend making some amicable arrangements with my creditors, I humbly request that your honor will be graciously pleased to grant me 3 months leave on private affairs.

For which act of kindness I shall ^{feel} ever grateful.

I beg to remain &c

I beg to acknowledge receipt

Referring

Referring to my application for leave of absence of 21st July 1894 I beg to intimate that my efforts to effect a compromise with my creditors proved unsuccessful and, as several of them have taken out writs on my person and I fear being arrested and taken to prison I was reluctantly compelled to apply for the Benefit of the Insolvent Act. Having no intention of defrauding my creditors I mentioned in my petition that I would allocate a part of my salary for their benefit. The court has been pleased to grant me an interim order and I apprehend no fears on the score of arrest. May I therefore respectfully request permission to rejoin office from tomorrow

For which act of kindness and generosity I shall ever feel grateful in the case as required in clause 45 of the

I am continuation of my letter no. 1250 dated 9th August 1894, I have the honor to submit copies of the Court's order, insolvent's petition, and balance-sheet in the case of P. Baboo Kavdu. Assistant packer of this office on Rs 17-8-0.

His debts do not appear to have been contracted by irregular or extravagant living but by standing as a surety for the debts of some of his relations and friends, some 10 years ago, under unavoidable circumstances.

In consideration of his long service of 18 years and the satisfactory manner in which he has been doing his work, I beg to recommend that his services may be retained.

Acting Chief Secretary to Govt.

SIR,

With reference to your official memorandum No. 2470 dated 12th December 1894, I have the honor to enclose for your information a copy of P. Balu Naidu's letter explaining the circumstances under which he stood as a surety for the debts of some of his relations and friends. He states that about 10 years ago he was driven out of his house owing to certain quarrels in his family circle, and during that time he was given shelter and protection by the above persons and that he was obliged to help them when they were in need of his assistance.

Copies of 2 statements from P. Rungva Naidu and M. Lingara Velumudaly are herewith enclosed in support of his explanation.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

E. Turner

To

The Superintendent of Stationery,
Madras

Most respected Sir,

In obedience to your honor's orders directing me to explain the nature and details of the unavoidable circumstances under which I had to stand as a surety to the debts of my friends and relations, I most respectfully beg to submit as follows:—

About 10 years ago certain disputes arose in the circle of my relations which deprived me of the help I was getting from some of them, and that at a time when I was not in good health and when articles of food were sold very dear. I was turned out of the house of one of my relations in which I had been living free of rent. Thus misfortune made me an invalid and a houseless stranger. At such a time, a gentleman in affluent circumstances with whom I was acquainted pitied my lot and gave me and my dependants shelter under his roof and much pecuniary help for the long space of four years. My brother-in-law (my sister's husband) also, who was a well-to-do man, stretched to me a helping hand. Through the timely aid and material help that these gentlemen so kindly gave me, I recovered my health, my relations relented and I was in all ways restored.

It was during that time that I was asked by my benefactors to stand as a nominal surety to the loans they raised. I thought it was the grossest ingratitude to have refused, having already been and having had still to be under heavy obligations to them subsequently one of them died and the other fell into adversity. I was thus made responsible for debts not contracted by me.

In these circumstances, I most humbly and respectfully beg that your honor will be generously pleased to make a favourable mention of my sad case to Government and restore me to my post in your honor's office for which act of charity I shall as in duty bound ever pray.

Madras
19th December 1894 }
I beg to remain,
Most Respectfully,
Your honor's most obedient servant, (Signed) P. Bahadur Naider.

I am at present unemployed. I was a contractor to the Public Works department some time ago.

P. Bahadur Naider is my brother in law. About nine years ago when I was in want of money on account of certain inconveniences experienced in my contract with the above department, and when I applied for a loan to one Mangapathy Naider, he asked me to produce a surety. P. Bahadur Naider being my wife's brother, I asked him to do so for me and he did accordingly.

As I have become, since then, stronger in circumstances, I should have been unable to pay the debt.

I am a native doctor residing at No 2, old friend of mine. Some ten years ago when Baboo Naidoo was driven penniless out of his house on account of some quarrels among his relations, I gave him shelter and helped him as far as I could, as I was then in affluent circumstances being a contractor to the Harbour Works.

Some time afterwards when I was in urgent need of money, I applied to the fund named 'Subramany Swamy Nithi' for a loan and they asked me to produce a joint signature. Then I asked my friend Baboo Naidoo to do that for me and he did it to oblige me.
