Remarks.

The S.S. Warora left Réunion with eighteen* emigrants on the 11th July 1895 and arrived at Pondicherry on the morning of the 25th July 1895. They were landed immediately on arrival. There was neither birth nor death during the voyage. However, the actual number landed at this port was only fourteen, four Bengal emigrants having been despatched to Calcutta by the same vessel.

2. The emigrants landed were all in good health. Two of them are supposed to have brought a savings of Rs. 234 between them and the rest were quite destitute. Thirteen of the emigrants got a secour of Rs. 26 among them at Rs. 2 per head to assist them to their villages and sixteen persons received clothes.

3. All were questioned; none made any complaint.

4. The S.S. Warora left with the contingent the same day for Calcutta, and the Protector of Emigrants at that port was duly informed of it and furnished with the necessary list.

S.S. Warora.

Certified that no contagious disease existed on board this vessel during her present voyage from Bourbon to Pondicherry. I also certify that the number of immigrants embarked at Bourbon for this port has been landed safely and in good health.
