Madras, the 24th of June 1895.

Sir,

It being necessary, under the rules laid down by Government obtaining in this department, that charge of establishments required for consignment and other native establishments of the regiment stationed in Fort Saint George should be supported by parish rate certificates,

^{as}
The President, Municipal Commission, the authorities noted in the margin were requested to grant such certificates, but all have stated their inability to furnish them.

From enquiry made by me, I have ascertained that in Calcutta certificates of the nature referred to are furnished by the Deputy Commissioner of Police in the Presidency town and elsewhere by the Comptroller to the Magistrate or other authority.

I have the honor to be

Sir:

I have the honour to return letter to G^d dated 24th June 1895 from the Controller, Military Accounts, Madras, which was forwarded to me with your Endorsement C to 1537 dated 5th July 1895 and to report that all applications of the nature specified in that letter, received in this Office have hitherto been transferred to the Deputy Collector of Madras in the hope that he might be able to comply with them.

2 — I am unable to do so as I know of no parties in Madras fixing the wages of Sweepers and Scavengers, the rates of hire for Carts or the prices at which Manrothes and other tools must be sold.

3 — If the Controller of Military Accounts will be satisfied with the Certificate attached as is Charged are not in excess of those usually charged in the locality and will direct Officers applying for such Certificates to give sufficient information in each case for a fairly accurate estimate to be formed. I see no objection to this duty being imposed on the Commissioners of Police.

I have the honor to be
