FOR ORDERS.

I think good cause has been shown for keeping Mr. Forbes on for another two months. This is one of the penalties we have to pay for the ^{extra} work thrown on the Govt. offices by new legislative duties, and it is of much importance that we should get the offices brought abreast of their work.

* I think on the whole the best plan would be to keep Mr. Forbes on till the Govt. goes back to Madras. This will not be quite 2 months.

The period of Special duty for which Mr. Forbes was detailed in G.O. No. 500 dated 15th June last expires on the 27th inst. and it is for order whether this period is to be extended.

Mr. Forbes has got through the Code of Crim. Procedure Papers but those connected with the Civil Procedure Code remain to be done and he has not yet so I believe been able to deal with the papers touching the Hyderabad Settlements of which he was formerly the Hon. Mr. J. B. on as he had worked at them when A.S. Secy. Secy. I am not yet clear of amount as there is still a large file connected with the Reorganization of the M.C.C. Dept. which has been for some months awaiting my having leisure to go into it. The work is so heavily ready and there is so much of it that it is impossible for me to get through it without help for some time longer.

The local reviews of the local school. Revenue Admin. reports are now coming in fast and though they are not difficult to deal with they take a considerable time to go through and add immensely to the work of the Secretary who has to deal with them. Mr. Forbes has hitherto relieved me of these but if they are now put upon my shoulders I cannot possibly get through in anything approaching a satisfactory way the work that I have to ^{do} ~~deal with~~. The Revenue Secretary has also I believe more than he can well get through.
I submit that Mr. Forbes may be wanted on special duty for another two months.
I would not suggest this if there was any reasonable prospect of work being got through properly and up to date by the ordinary staff but just now there is not. Had he not been for Mr. Forbes presence I should certainly have been hopelessly in arrears.
