PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following papers:—

From Captain E. DEBRATH, Assistant Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Simla, the 22nd July 1895, No. 2070-B.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 579-S., dated 11th July 1895, submitting commissions of Volunteer officers for His Excellency the Viceroy's signature, and enquiring whether the submission of such commissions should be delayed until the gazette notifications have issued, in view to the dates of appointment being entered, or whether they should accompany the letters of appointment with the dates left blank.

2. In reply I am to state, for the information of the Governor in Council, that the commissions forwarded will be submitted for His Excellency the Viceroy's signature.

3. As regards the submission of these commissions in future, I am to observe that, in accordance with item I (a) of the statement which accompanied Military Department letter, No. 1660-B, dated 13th June 1894, the commissions of Volunteer officers should be submitted to the Government of India together with the draft General Orders making the appointments. If the appointment is to be made with effect from a specified date, such date should be entered in the commission which accompanies the General Order, but if no date is specified, the date should be left blank and the necessary entry will be made here before it is submitted for His Excellency the Viceroy's signature.

From Captain E. DEBRATH, Assistant Secretary to the Government of India, Military Department, to the Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras, dated Simla, the 29th July 1895, No. 2146-B.

I am directed to observe that the parchment commissions for Volunteer officers sent up by Local Governments and Administrations for His Excellency the Viceroy's signature are often very much soiled and creased, owing to their being sent by post in ordinary envelopes. In many cases the manuscript entries lack neatness, and the commissions are thus often not in a state to be placed before His Excellency. I am to request, therefore, that in preparing Volunteer commissions in future care may be taken to have the manuscript entries on them neatly hand-printed, and the commissions forwarded efficiently protected in tin cases or between cardboard covers.

2. In order to avoid unnecessary expense on account of postage, the commissions should be sent in batches of a dozen or more, whenever this procedure is not likely to cause any considerable delay.
