ENCLOSURES.

I have the honor to forward the accompanying draft of revised A.R.D. Volume XIV B (Native Army Schools, Madras) which has received the sanction of the Government of India, and to request that you will be so good as to authorize it being printed in the Government Press, Madras.

1. A clean proof being sent as early as practicable to the Deputy Adjutant General (Ootacamund) for examination will oblige.
2. The distribution list will be forwarded to the Superintendent of the Press with the final proof.
3. A copy of A.R.D. Volume XIV A is also sent for guidance as to printing and general get up of the book now to be published.

(1) To be returned.

I have the honor to be

I am afraid we can't undertake this for the military department
to pay for it.

It is submitted that the work is entirely a military publication and that Civil
is in no way concerned in it.
There is no reason why it should be printed at the Govt Press unless Imperial promises
to pay for it.

The G. P. S. is so close fitted that it should I submit pay whenever Imperial can make it
