LIEUT.-COLONEL C. E. CRIGHTON,

Commandant, S. I. R. VOL. RIFLE CORPS.

To

The Assistant Adjutant General, Madras District.

SIR,

I have the honor to inform that owing to the greater number of the members of the Detachments of the Corps under my command stationed at Pankajapur, Dhoont and Pallavaram having resigned or left their stations, there are not sufficient members left to form Detachments at the above mentioned stations. I have the honor to request therefore that these Detachments may be abolished.

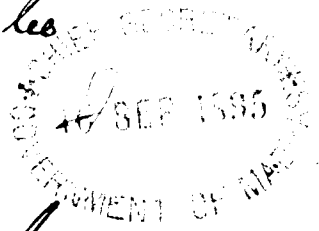

I have also the honor to inform that the Reserve Section formed at Tello 2 years ago has not been a success. The members who enrolled never made any attempt to make themselves efficient Reservists: most of them have vice left the station. I request therefore that the Reserve Section may be abolished.

I have the honor to be
Sir.

Your obedient servant.
Lt. Colonel.
