. Note for C.A. through H.C.

The Will allowance to be drawn by H. Harris/paraph. (after the 15th September has been decided, as his case is the final of the kind. He held a sub. farm appointment from 1870 up to the 15th and was placed on Special duty from the following day in connection with the Administration ^{and} a question now arises as to what Will allowance should be drawn by him from the 16th September. He cannot draw on D. 70 as that appointment was given to S. N. L. a. M. - He can however draw the allowance on D. 100, his actual present pay is as much as he has been directed to work at. C.A. ~~for some~~ In that case I will not, I think pass the bill without a ~~from~~ Special order permitting him to work at C.A.

The Case is submitted for orders. If C.A. is of opinion favorable order the bill can be submitted after inserting the S.A. on the head of the bill. (26/9)
