Despatch from Her Majesty's Secretary of State for India,
No.72, dated 29th August 1895.

I forward for the information of Your Excellency in Council, copy of a correspondence which has passed between the Foreign Foreign Office to India Office, 17th August 1895. Office and (Enclosure.)
India Office to Foreign Office, 29th August 1895. this Office on the subject of the credit recently voted by the Legislative Assembly of Surinam to enable the Government of that Colony to appoint an Assistant to the Agent General for Immigration.

From the Under-Secretary of State Foreign Office to the Under-Secretary of State, India Office, dated 17th August 1895.

I am directed by the Marquis of Salisbury to transmit to you a copy of a despatch from Mr Sydney Churchill, Her Majesty's Consul Churchill, No.22, July 13th. Consul at Paramaribo, reporting that the Legislative Body of Surinam have voted a credit to enable the Government to appoint an Assistant to the Agent General for Immigration in that Colony.

I am to state this His Lordship proposes, if Lord George Hamilton concurs, to instruct Her Majesty's Minister at the Hague to express to the Netherlands' Government the satisfaction felt by Her Majesty's Government at this evidence of the solicitude of the Colonial Authorities for the welfare of the immigrants.

From Her Majesty's Consul at Paramaribo, to Her Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, No.22, dated 13th July 1895.

I am glad to be able to report that the Legislative Assembly of this Colony voted, at their sitting of yesterday evening a credit to enable the Government of Surinam to appoint an Assistant to the Agent-General for Immigration.

In the absence of an Assistant the Agent-General did the best he could to grapple with the daily increasing responsibilities of his office. The new appointment will enable him to give much more personal attention to inspections and it will also free him from a multitude of administrative details which occupied him to the exclusion of matters which will benefit by that attention which he will ^{now} be able to bestow upon them either in his own person or that of his assistant.

In a country where the question of labour is one of vital importance any amelioration of the administrative system which controls the labourer is of great moment. It will interest your Lordship the more as the main & principal source of labour supply is H.M.'s Indian Empire.

From the Under-Secretary of State, India Office, to the Under-Secretary of State, Foreign Office, dated 29th August 1895.

I am directed by the Secretary of State for India in Council to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of the 17th instant transmitting copy of a despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Paramaribo reporting that the Legislative Assembly in Surinam has voted a credit to enable the Government of that Colony to appoint an Assistant to the Agent General for Immigration.

In reply I am to state that Lord George Hamilton entirely concurs in the Marquis of Salisbury's proposal to express to the Government of the Netherlands the satisfaction of Her Majesty's Government at this measure.
