I think this will do quite well.
If the P. of I. answers that public servants must at least hold mortgages, even as trustees, we can then argue the question
MS

I submit for His approval a draft of a letter to India with reference to the instructions contained in the accompanying sealed packet.
I have thought it best to refer the reference to the particular case of case which has given rise to it.
I presume that the letter need not be confidential as it refers to no particulars as to the reasons why it has been written and only a general question. The papers in the sealed packet will unless it be considered unnecessary remain confidential - as far as as I am personally concerned I have no objection to what I have written being brought on the ordinary file.
