GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

ORDER—No. 906, Public, dated 4th November 1895.

As the present system of issuing the Fort St. George Gazette early on Wednesday morning entails a great strain on the staff of the Government Press, His Excellency the Governor in Council directs that in future it shall be issued after noon on Wednesday. It will be in time for the evening mails which are the principal ones out of Madras, and will still bear Tuesday's date.

2. Notifications of appointments or leave for Part I must in future reach the Press before 6 P.M. on Tuesdays; those marginally noted should be sent in not later than 6 P.M. on Saturdays.

3. The following notifications must in future reach the Superintendent, Government Press, by the time specified:—

(a) Notifications of leave, appointments, &c., for Parts I-A, I-B and II — before 6 P.M. on Mondays; all other notifications and notices appearing in these parts — before 6 P.M. on Saturdays.

(b) Advertisements by all public departments, abkari sale notifications, examination notices, lists of successful candidates at examinations and other similar notices — before 6 P.M. on Saturdays.

(c) The Madras Observatory and Madras Municipality notices and all private advertisements — before 6 P.M. on Mondays.

(d) The weekly abstract of season reports — not later than 4 P.M. on Tuesdays.

4. Notifications which are exceptionally large, but received within the prescribed time, may be held over by the Superintendent; he will, however, on receipt of the notification, inform the department concerned of his inability to insert the notification in the Gazette about to issue.

5. Proofs of all notifications for Part I should be returned to the Press not later than 6 P.M. on Tuesdays; proofs of notifications and official advertisements, &c., for Parts I-A, I-B, and II and proofs of all supplements must reach the Press not later than 2 P.M. on Tuesdays.

6. The Superintendent will be authorised to withhold, till the next issue, matter for the Gazette which does not reach him in accordance with these instructions.
