2. In the cases referred to, the surplus estates of the deceased parents (warrant and non-commissioned officers) were, after realization of all properties concerned and payment of preferential charges by the President Committee of adjustment or heads of departments under whom the individuals might have been serving, sent to the Secretary to Government, Military Estate department with receipts in proof of payment of the surplus amount into the nearest treasury. These receipts were subsequently forwarded by the Secretary to Government Military Estate department to Accounts Branch until May 1891 and since then to the Pay Branch

Estates) in the Military books pending further instructions from Government as to the disposal of these estates.

3. On closing the accounts of the estates concerned, instructions were received from the Military Secretary to Government (Estate department) for the investment of the amount in the Government Savings Bank in the name of the Secretary to Government, Military department, for the benefit of the minors of the deceased concerned. On receipt of the above instructions, the amounts were paid by means of cheques to the Bank of Madras for necessary investment in the Government Savings Bank, the amounts thus paid being debited to deposits to clear the outstanding credit under that head, vide para 2 ante.

4. When the minors attain their
