C. No. 3312.

FOR ORDERS.

There is nothing really to be gained by looking at the plans on the spot. However, send them to H.E. — When he has done with them, please send them to me again ask Mr. Irwin to come & speak to me about them. I am still quite dissatisfied with them. The bathroom doors are still closed under the bedroom windows without the least need that they should be — because of the 4 bedrooms has been 2 bath rooms (not to speak of dressing room) so that it may be suitable for a married couple. The big bedroom, which presumably would be that used by the master of the house this life, is so designed as to wall space that it would be impossible comfortably to put a double bed into it.

10/20/95

After the conference held yesterday at G.H. Madras between the hon. Mr. Bhos - Mr. Irwin and myself there remains nothing now but to turn the plans to Mr. Irwin.

No estimate accom. parries the plans. It is well for H.E. to see them when at Kodai. on the 19th inst.

With the request that he will submit the plans & estimates in accordance with the arrangement come to at that conference, as soon as possible.

think the plan may be approved - the cost 31-000 odd seems to be very reasonable - if correct.

7 Nov 8/11/95 JG

I think No. 4 - the pencilled plan will now do. The only thing that occurs to me is that the bed room on the right of the entrance porch sh^d. have a door leading into the passage to the bath room - ~~the bath room~~ ~~the bath room~~ ~~the bath room~~ little nearer to the bath room, so that the door will be as possible in the bath room.
Also the door opening into the bath room sh^d. be made to the passage of the bath.

The cupboards in B - do not seem quite right. No use in having one immediately behind the bed - the other one shown sh^d. be enough.

No cupboard at all is shown in C - while there are two in D.

The one in the partition wall between C and D should be made to open into C - instead of D. Otherwise I

+ Yes, there is one in the wall between the room & the main passage JG

Please see His Excell.

is correct about the cupboard in room C so I have not referred to the matter in the G.O. The lan has gone on to P.W.D.

LD. No 929. 8 Nov/95
The plan (No 4) and
the estimate amounting to Rs 3,591 are approved subject to the following remarks -

W
17 Nov

- (1) There should be a door leading from the bedroom (A), on the right of the entrance passage into the passage to the bath room.
- (2) Of the two cupboards in B the one immediately behind the bed appears to be unnecessary.
