Memorandum in English, to H.E. the Viceroy, the one that is referred to in the preceding para; and regret that Messrs Addison & Co who undertook to print ^{us in possession of} a printed copy of this address on the 11th instant (yesterday) have failed to do so in this instance also.

6. The original copy of minutes of a meeting of the Visvakulottarana Association, Madras, held on the 3^d instant, signed by 73 members present on the spot, adopting the address as per last para; and in reference thereto I shall feel favoured by your communicating to me, for the information of the Association, the date and hour of the interview to be granted to its deputation, and also arranging for the presence of a non-Brahmin interpreter from the Madras High Court for the interview.

Sir,
In continuation of letter of yesterday's date I beg to inform you that case, to forward the address to the Hon. Secy. accompanying the Address to H.E. the Viceroy as it is very necessary that H.E. should be acquainted with the effect thereof.

I beg to remain, Sir
Your most obedient servant

P.S.— Since writing the above the postman puts into my hands just now (10-30 A.M.) a letter of advice from Messrs Addison & Co dated Madras 11th October 1895.
The original Petition to Parliament & as well as the copies of the Address and the Memorandum.

now in the Bangalore General Post Office; and, it being Sunday, can be delivered to me and submitted to you only tomorrow.

I regret very much having, in my yesterday's letter mentioned the name of Messrs Addison & Co as the cause of delay. The firm, as is so well known, is an excellent one; and I now find that the delay of a day in the fulfilment of its promise was attributable not solely to it, but to a subsequent addition to matters for print having been put into the hands of Messrs Addison & Co rather late.

Yours sincerely

(Thy Lachari)

The Memorandum submitted for favor of kind consideration, with the Address to H.E. the Viceroy & the President by the Viswakulatharama Association at Madras in Decr 1895

In soliciting help from Govt in the matter of getting its members and the district collectors to be the patrons respectively of the guilds at the Presidency Town and of the district associations outside it, proposed to be established, it has to be noted that paid officers of Govt would appear to have no hindrance to their evincing interest in any matter pertaining to the welfare of any community, or to their taking an active part in it. The Honble Mr. C.S. Crooke of the M.S., though a member of the Board of Revenue, Madras, has done more for the Mahomedan community in obtaining for it substantial pecuniary and other aid from Govt, than any Mahomedan member of the Mahomedan community itself in these parts. Considering that the interests of indigenous industry are of a very comprehensive nature, and that, in helping the Kammalaks, the Govt helps the great cause of a country suffering from manifold evils arising from the dearth of indigenous industry, it is hoped there will be no possible objection advancing the humble proposal submitted for securing cooperation of the part of officers of Govt, as, without this co-operation, no hope can, in the present condition of things, be entertained for gaining any object, however paramount it may be.

Bangalore 14th October 1895.

15-OCT-1895
GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

To The Chief Secretary to the Madras Govt.

Sir, CURRENT No.

With reference to my letter dated 12th and 13th instant I have much pleasure in handing by registered packet post the original Petition of the Kammalaks of Southern India with enclosures complete, bound into one book, (2) a printed copy of the Petition, bound into another book, (3) printed copies of the Address to H.E. the Viceroy in English and Tamil, together with its accompaniment of a Memorandum in English, and with the Preface to the Petition to Parliament, all stitched together; and trust that the Government of India to whom the (1) and (2) above are to be forwarded, as promised in G.O. No 276 Public Dept. dated 3rd April last, will be pleased to accord due

Due consideration, and, further, transmit the books to their destination; and that the (3) will be forwarded to the Viceroy in substitution of the manuscript copies already furnished on the due date, and steps taken at the same time to get me back the proof copy of the Petition, sent by me with my letter of the 12th instant, as per note to that effect on the front of that copy, so the necessity for its retention now ceases and the return of the copy will help a reprint.

I beg to remain,
Your most obedient servant

Sir,

In April last the Secretary of the South India Visvakulatharana Association inquired whether this Govt. would take steps for ^{the formal presentation for consideration & disposal} ~~getting a petition~~, addressed ^{to Parliament} to Parliament, ~~formally~~ ~~presented for consideration~~ ~~and disposal~~, and in reply was informed that the petition would be forwarded to the Secy.
of India, but that this Govt could undertake nothing further in connection with it.

2. I am now directed to ^{transmit} ~~forward~~ two bound volumes containing respectively the original petition and a printed copy thereof. The petition is from the Kammalaks (Kammalaks)

of Southern India with the object of exposing the intentions and aims of the so-called Indian National Congress.

3. I am directed to take this opportunity of enquiring what procedure should be followed in similar cases in future.
In Resolution of the Home Dept. No. 16 — 1098-1114 of 20th June 1889 it was decided that if a petition against the orders of the Secretary of State for India in Council is prepared for presentation to Parliament, it should be submitted to the House of Parliament to which it is addressed through the medium of some unofficial member of the House and not through the Secretary of State. But it was not stated what procedure should be be adopted in the case of a petition addressed to Parliament which is not an appeal against an order of the Secretary of State.
