GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From the Hon'ble Mr. D. DUNCAN, M.A., D.Sc., Director of Public Instruction, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Madras, 8th November 1895, No. 12020.

With reference to paragraph 2 of G.O., No. 766, Public, dated 12th September 1895, I have the honour to inform you that I thought it desirable, before addressing Government, to ascertain the views of the Syndicate, which I did at its last meeting.

2. The Syndicate is of opinion that, on the whole, it is not expedient that the University should undertake to conduct an examination which is not one of the steps to a degree. This is also my own opinion. The Act of Incorporation does not appear to contemplate that any examinations will be conducted by the University other than those connected with its own degrees.

3. I beg to resubmit the rules modified in accordance with the views of the Syndicate and the orders of Government. I do not think that the valuation of the essays for such a large prize should be left to one examiner. I have proposed two, and in the event of their not agreeing, I have provided for the appointment of additional examiners.

ENCLOSURE.

Government Prize for South Indian Palæography.

1. With a view to encourage the study of South Indian Palæography, the Government of Madras has instituted a prize of the value of Rs. 500.

2. The prize shall be awarded annually for the best essay or dissertation on a subject connected with South Indian Palæography written by a graduate of any Faculty of the Madras University. The selection of the precise subject shall be left to the candidate.

3. The essay must be written in the English language, and for purposes of verification it must give precise references to any authorities that may be quoted or relied on.

4. The essay must reach the Director of Public Instruction not later than the 15th October.

5. No essay will be considered worthy of the prize which does not contain evidence of original research and independent thought. Should there be only one competing essay, the prize shall nevertheless be awarded, provided that such essay is of decided merit and contains clear evidence that the author has made a real study of the subject.

6. The prize shall be awarded by Government on the recommendation of a Board appointed by Government of not less than two examiners, one of whom should be the Government Epigraphist. In the event of the examiners not being able to come to an agreement, Government may appoint an additional examiner or additional examiners.

7. The essay declared worthy of the prize shall be published at the cost of Government.

8. The prize shall not be awarded more than once to the same individual.

ORDER—No. 958, Public, dated 20th November 1895.

The rules as amended are approved and will be published in the Fort St. George and all District Gazettes.
