My Lord,

I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of the Despatch No. 6 of the 15th of June of the current year, which Your Lordship caused to be addressed to me by Sir H. Percy Anderson.

On receipt of this Despatch, I wrote to Mr. Vice Consul Japp, at Guadeloupe, requesting him to forward at once, his report on the subject of Sir H. Percy Anderson's Despatch.

Mr. Japp replied that, on receipt of my letter, he had written to the Director of the Interior at Casse-Ferme, the capital of Guadeloupe, and would communicate to me that Official's reply, as soon as received.

After some delay, for which I ask Your Lordship's indulgence, inasmuch as it was not of my fault, I have received the Vice-Consul's Report.

Herewith, I have the honour to forward the said Report, copied from the original, and hope that the decision arrived at by the care of the Vice Consul will meet with Your Lordship's approval.
