To,

The Honorable J. F. Price, C. S. I.,
Chief Secretary to the Government of Fort. St. George,
Madras

RESPECTED SIR,

With profound respect I beg to bring to your honor's kind notice that a book called "Nautical, Sea Customs and Commercial terms," has been compiled and got printed by me; and when I was about to publish it, I happened to learn that there was a G. O. prohibiting public servants from dedicating or publishing any books. I beg respectfully to submit that I was not aware of this before attempting my work, or it would have been my first care to obtain the necessary sanction of Government before giving my book to the Press. From the enclosed printed notice it will be clearly seen that I had begun the compilation before the G. O. came into force.

I further beg to add that on my applying to my immediate superior, the Port Officer of Calicut, for getting me the required sanction, he has permitted me to obtain the necessary sanction direct as the matter is purely non-official. I therefore most humbly and earnestly beg to crave your honor will be graciously pleased to accord to me the necessary sanction for publishing the book, copy of which is forwarded today under separate cover Book Post, and thus enable me to begin the sale.

For which act of kindness, I shall, as in duty bound.

Ever Pray,

Patricius Joseph

Assistant Conservator.
