G O.	No.	Department.	Date.	G O.

[illegible]

My dear W. Price.

I venture to trouble you again about my affairs because the last Gazette has apparently postponed for an indefinite period my chances of permanent promotion in the ordinary line - Horne's appointment has been given to Brodie, my junior, and H. D. Taylor who has held the special post of manager.

of the Sydney Estate comes into the General list of promotions again as A.C. - I see nothing certain, but we have two places and as I fear, make my promotion to Sub Col. a very distant possibility. may I therefore suggest that when Quindoch goes up-country, and the permanent Secretary on the left side of the Board falls vacant, the opportunity may be taken to give him the situation by transferring him to the Secy. Secy. Secretary.

Place on by giving it to me in paper. This would not injure Brodie, who presumably will succeed Quindoch, for he has a permanent post on R1200-1400 and would at once draw the full pay of the Secretaryship (£7500).
There would I believe be no amount objection to his being transferred to an appointment on equal pay - and on his return to duty in the end of 1897, either he or I would of course be sent up-country.
I do not know whether you are sending Quindoch to a Collocation at present, and I write this as a mere suggestion.
I fear that if this is not done I shall never draw even the lowest pay of permanent Secy.

4 1236 and although I do not want to leave the Board's Office, I shall be forced to try for some better opportunity, starting late in 1887. I know you would sincerely do anything for me if you could - and as I have served under you as Secretary appointing since the end of 1885 and even prior to that, I am led to hope that you have not been directly into my work - my present post is a responsible one & the work is very heavy and I think it is not unreasonable to ask for some slight concession in the way of salary - Yours sincerely

My dear Harrison,

Please see enclosed D.O. from Carr. There would apparently be no objection under Article 242 of the C.S.R. to transfer Wynch to the permanent appointment of Secretary to the Commissioner of Salt & Revenue as it carries the same pay as his present appointment, but would his increments be affected in any way by the transfer?

Yours sincerely.

My dear Friend

Dear Sir,

I think that under the rules Wymond can be transferred to the other Treasury Ship for the better part of act.
171. A. and that he will not lose in pay. Clearly it will place him at a disadvantage with Can if the question arises who is to stay on for Wymond would then have to be forgotten but to his old app't.

8

-presuming of course that Govt. did not propose to give him the work of the then Secretary. If however Wynch is then to be paid to the other side and can command the Board if appointed to act will be for in his first year he will get the same (1500 lbs) as the next year his increment will be 200 lbs and the next year 400 lbs.
All this of course is on the supposition that Board will be confirmed.

Yours truly

W. Hamilton

P.S. Perhaps I have not made myself clear about Board. I mean that whether acting as permanent he gets the same the first year but rather less the next year than if he were permanent and so on. W.H.

My dear Stuart
What I wanted to say to H. S. about Murdoch was simply to bring to his notice the exceedingly bad effect on the S. O. A. Dept. of the way in which changes are constantly made in the tenure of the Secretaryship and of the ^{new} H.
Com-ship which is held by a Col. officer. These appointments carry incremental pay, the object of which is that a man put into them before he would, according to his standing in the Service, be entitled to so much as ^{his} initial rate of pay, should be detained in them after his contemporaries have risen to higher rates of pay than their maxima. If you will look up the proposals for fixing the pay of the two Col. Secretaries to the H. S., you will see, unless my memory deceives me, this object distinctly stated. Yet, so far as I know, this object has in no single case been borne in

them
be mind; but proposals are constantly made by the C.S., who knows & cares nothing about the salt & alk: Dept. & knows the Sec. & the H.D. in that dept. in the order of his seniority, as if he did not hold an app't carrying immaterial pay. Four months ago Mr. Wendock was ordered for a Court - I represented my view of the case & had Wendock & the C.S.'s proposal was disallowed - Now, apparently, he has renewed it without bringing H.D.'s action that passed before.

The proposal also is that Mr. N. S. Hodie in Dallas Sect. of the Bd. in the S. & A. Dept. - This office is small enough, but what has been his experience to justify his app't. to such a position in a department the work of which is highly technical & requires for its proper performance an extensive acquaintance with the personnel of an establishment of some ten thousand officers & men? He was originally app'd. to act as Dy. Col. in Apr. 95, 13 months ago. But during that short pe-

He was at least once taken away ^{H.H.} last as a C.M. - I almost think it was twice. I haven't the particulars but they can of course be obtained in the office.

Mr. Hodie ~~is~~ is clever & has no doubt picked up a good deal of info about the Dept. But I am sure that 13 months, even if his tenure of office had not been broken, is not a long enough period of service in the Dept. to qualify a man to be an efficient Secretary to a Court who may be, and generally is, slightly off all knowledge of its technicalities.

My opinion is that Messrs. Murdoch & Rodie should, in the interest of the public service, stay where they respectively are for at least another year; & that, when Mr. Murdoch then leaves the Dept. on promotion, Mr. Rodie should be succeeded by a good officer so junior that it may be possible to detain him in the Dept. until his turn comes for a further Collocation. Say such an officer joined the Dept. at 5 or 6 years' service he would at first gain from Rs 400 to 600 a month, which would be balanced in the latter days of his departmental service by a loss of Rs 200 or so a month: On the whole, he would gain well.

Am.

1236 loss by prolonged service in the dept. - As for the dept itself, no one can doubt that it would benefit greatly by the lengthened service in it of such an officer.

The mistake hitherto has been that in filling the D^y Com^{rs} ship an officer of as low a standing has been selected. Such an officer has gained nothing by his selection that it probably has seemed unwise not to allow him to take his promotion out of the dept in order of seniority - What I say is that an officer selected for the D^y Com^{rs} ship should be of the highest standing, and junior at that.

As H. E. will look back to the figures of 1882 and the enormous difference made in the Revenue by the efficient adminⁿ of the S. & A. Dept., and if he will reflect that the Abkari branch of the Dept. has been our chief Prov^d financial resource in the past, I will believe me that in the future contract, which begins on April 1, 1896, it will be quite as important as hitherto, he will understand very anxiously that the Dept should be officered only by men who have done their work thoroughly.

There is no doubt the change need be made. It would suffice to promote Col. Rawson to the Dist. & Sessions Judge at Chingleput, and pro tem accept the remaining proposals.

Mr. Rawson will not be benighted even though he be appointed sub pro loco District Judge of Vijaya-patnam as his salary is regulated independently the actual district appointment. In this case he will be considered as sub pro loco 2nd grade judge and acting in the 1st grade but his salary as acting 1st grade judge will be received not upon the pay of the 2nd grade but upon that of his substantive appointment (Sub Collector)

H.E. the Governor (H.E. the P.S.) deine

FOR ORDERS.

Two minutes of appointments drawn up in accordance with the orders of His Excellency the Governor are submitted for signature.

Attention is solicited to the telephone to and from the Accountant-General flagged ^M from which it will be seen that Mr. Rawson will not benefit if he is appointed sub pro tem Collector of Chingleput or sub pro tem District Judge of Vizagapatam. It seems to be a question whether it is worth while, under the circumstances, making the sub pro tem appointments at all as neither Mr. Pinhey nor Mr. Dutt ^{will} benefit at present by them.

H.E. the P.S. Mr. Rawson, Pinhey and Dutt must not be made.
