NOVEMBER.

Advances for Purchase of Tents.

Ordering that the balance of advance made to Mr. Gillespie, now acting Deputy Registrar, High Court, be recovered from him by monthly deductions of an amount equivalent to the fixed tentage which he would have received, had he continued to act as Head Assistant Collector, and making an addendum to rule 7 of the Indian Civil Service Manual (Madras), on the subject of —.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From F. C. HARRISON, Esq., Officiating Accountant-General, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated Fort St. George, 13th November 1896, No. 3472.

I have the honour to state that, in Madras G.O., No. 1289, Public, dated 5th July 1883, and rule 7 of the Indian Civil Service Manual, it is laid down that the advance drawn by a junior civilian for the purchase of tents should be recovered by the stoppage of fixed tentage allowance to which he is entitled, but no provision is made as to what amount should be deducted by him when he holds an appointment which carries no tentage.

2. The case in point is that of Mr. J. T. Gillespie, now acting Deputy Registrar, High Court. He received an advance of Rs. 750 for purchase of tents, and a sum of Rs. 349-11-11 is still outstanding against him. His present acting appointment does not carry tentage allowance. I beg, therefore, to inquire whether the balance may be recovered monthly by deduction of an amount equal to the fixed tentage which he would have drawn had he continued to act as Head Assistant Collector.

ORDER—No. 1260, Public, dated 30th November 1896.

The course suggested by the Accountant-General is approved.

2. The following addendum will be made to the second sentence in rule 7 of the Indian Civil Service Manual (Madras):—

“or in the event of his appointment not carrying tentage, by monthly deductions of an amount equivalent to the fixed tentage which he would otherwise have drawn.”
