The Adjutancy of the S.I. Ry Vol Rifle Corp

FOR ORDERS.

* vide Not. in Madras Command Orders N° 536 d/23. x 96 A and abstract of C. 3366 B

* vide G.O. 1849 Mis d/28. III. 94

Lt J. S. Dallas, the Adjutant of the S.I. Ry Vol Rifle Corps, has been granted leave for 180 days on medical certificate and the Commandant recommends that Major Koenenman may be appointed to act during his absence.
Major Koenenman acted on a previous occasion during the absence of Captain Bradley, Lt Dallas' predecessor, from the 28th Feb'y 1894 to the 24th Feb'y 1895.

It will be observed that the Dy Adjt sent forward the recommendation with ref to P. 112 G. N° 5886 d/21. 12. 92nd Vol, in which we read that the local Govt may appoint a volunteer officer as an officiating Adjutant.

Adjutant but should report the appointment for the confirmation of the Govt of India.

On the last occasion that Major Koenehan acted as Adjutant India was not so informed, the appointment being merely "sanctioned and notified in f.o." vide

Under present arrangements the procedure in regard to all correspondence on volunteer matters is laid down in para 528 A.R.S. Vol. 12 (Foot. Issue).

It will be seen that applications for appointment as volunteer adjutants are disposed of by local posts, while "leave and transfers of military adjutants" are to be arranged by L.C. Is in communication with local posts: but there is nothing said about acting appointments resulting from leave to volunteer officers ~~as adjutants~~ adjutants. of Vol. Corps.

Issued by Mil. Dept in

"appointments" word, it is thought over "acting appointments" ~~the~~ one ~~is~~ ~~the~~ ~~the~~ and the other is applicable to the former and the latter.
See 160 57. The appl. of adjutants results with the local post.
A.L.H. J.

Submitted that on these grounds, as much as is possible, as applications for appointments as Volunteer Adjts. on the basis of war (under No.
128) by local posts, it is necessary to address India.

Please see note about No. 160

Yes. The orders
now in force are

It is for consideration whether No. 5886 June 21st 21st Sept 1892 is to be considered as cancelled.
The object of informing India is that "the available allowances of the appointment" may be passed to the acting incumbent.
Attention is solicited to paras 157 & 42 A.R.S.
According to the former paid adjutants are sanctioned for every volunteer corps consisting of four or more troops or companies, provided the total number of such members reaches 250, and under the latter it is competent for the commandant of a corps to appoint acting adjutants without pay but the appointment must not involve extra expense to the State.

The object of the allowances passed to an Adj. of a Vol. Corps is to give the advantage of the services of an officer of the regular army.
There is no objection to a Vol. officer acting as Adj. for a short time and receiving the allowances of an Adj. for a longer time.

the season, but when, as in this case, the permanent Adj't. is to be absent throughout the drill season it is submitted that it is highly desirable that an officer of Regulars should be appointed to act. In the recent case of the M. Ry. Vobrs the Comdt. particularly called for an Army Adj't.

As the vacancy was only two months of the drill season. He said his Ag. Adj't. who is a Vobr. offr. could not possibly spare the time from his ordinary duties to attend properly to the duties of Adj't. This is more especially the case in a Railway Corps where the companies are scattered all over the line and the Adj't. should be constantly on the move superintending the annual firing for efficiency to earn the capitation grant.

Apart from this consideration, it is submitted that there are reasons connected with the interest economy of Vobr. Corps

* He is Storekeeper of the S. R. Ry.

It is not quite clear whether the applies only to Army Majors. The last two lines of the Section seem to indicate that Volunteer officers might also be included under the provision.

1/4. I think British is intended to be distinguished from "Indian" officers. But it is not quite clear. MA

I think I thought that the rule no longer applies, as appointments of adj'tants (to therefore presumably only appointments) made with the last July under Secs 110 & 120.

This seems unnecessary now for the reason noted above. A

which render it desirable that so senior an officer as a Major should not conduct the duties of Adj't. In fact it is a question whether Major Kosniemann is not barred by regulation - for he ranks as the junior of his rank in the Army, and Army Majors cannot be Adj'ts of Vobr. Corps under Art. 164, A. R. S.
Vol. II.

As the Regn. just quoted is the present guide in Vobr. matters it is submitted that India may be asked whether it still desires that offg appts as Adj'ts of Vobr. Corps shd. be reported to it in the circumstances detailed in para 1 of Col. Maitland's letter in G.O. 5886. Dily d/21.9.92. This, however, is not a case in point for it is not an offg.
appt. for the interregnum between the departure of a permanent

Adjutant and the secret of his name on the same.

The general rule that the authority to make permanent appointments should be finalizing once also

R. 36. R. R. 1. (Pres. Issue)
L. 36. 528.

It is submitted that under the circumstances an army adjutant should be appointed.
12/1/96
S. 36/96

It would seem desirable to get an officer of the army to act - if one can be procured.
