DECEMBER.

Local Allowances of Assistant Surgeons for holding charge of Dispensaries, &c.

Communicating to the Surgeon-General and the Accountant-General the instructions of the Government of India in regard to the grant of the local allowance to an Assistant Surgeon of the 1st or 2nd class when he proceeds on leave and an Assistant Surgeon of the lower class acts for him.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper:—

From R. A. GAMBLE, Esq., Under Secretary to the Government of India, Finance and Commerce Department, to the Secretary to the Government of Bombay, dated Simla, the 16th September 1896, No. 3900-P.

I am directed to acknowledge the receipt of your letter, No. 2985, dated 9th July 1896, forwarding a communication from the Accountant-General, Bombay, in which he raises the question whether an Assistant Surgeon on privilege leave may be permitted to draw a portion of the local allowance granted for holding charge of dispensaries, &c.

2. Assistant Surgeons of the 1st, 2nd and 3rd classes in charge of dispensaries, &c., are granted local allowances of Rs. 50, 35 and 20 a month respectively; there is not a fixed rate of local allowance attached to the appointments, but the amount of the allowance depends on the grade of the Assistant Surgeon. In the Bombay Presidency, when an Assistant Surgeon of the 1st or 2nd class proceeds on privilege leave, and an Assistant Surgeon of a lower class is appointed to act, it has been the practice to pass to the absentee the difference between the full local allowance drawn by him while on duty and the amount admissible to the acting officer of a lower class.

3. In reply, I am to say that the Government of India are of opinion that when an Assistant Surgeon of the 1st or 2nd class proceeds on leave, and an Assistant Surgeon of the lower class acts for him, it must be held that the latter officer, though he receives only Rs. 35 or Rs. 20 a month, as the case may be, draws the whole of the local allowance available, and that there is none left for the officer on leave.
