Sir,

In obedience to G. O. no 1169, dated 2nd November 1896, I have the honor to state that I have taken stock of the stores of the Government Press, Madras. The quantity of each article, as per list furnished, has been found to agree with the Ledger balance. I may state that the stores are kept neatly and satisfactorily.

2. The value of the stores on the 16th November 1896 was Rs 19629. 6. 7, as per statement herewith submitted.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

your most obedient servant

J. M. Taylor

Superintendent
