THE Secretary to Government, Revenue Department.

SIR,
I have the honour to state that in Board's Proceedings No 146 dated 16 April 1896 Mr J. J.
Cotton Acting Head Assistant Collector Virudupet was permitted to join a survey party at Waltair.
He halted at Waltair from 4 to 10 and 30 and 31 May 1896 and claimed daily allowance at Rs 4 per diem.

As Waltair should be considered as his head quarter station while undergoing survey training under Madras Government Order No 1238 Revenue dated 5 October 1893 his claim to daily allowance was disallowed by this office under Article 1154(a) Civil Service Regulations. Mr Cotton now states that he was permitted by the Board to retain charge of his duties as acting Head Assistant Collector while undergoing survey training and that while doing both the duties his head quarter station should be held to be - Narsapatam the Head quarter of the Head Assistant Collector and that he should be granted daily allowance for halts at Waltav. I beg therefore to enquire with reference to Article 1155 Civil Service Regulations as to what station should be considered as his Head quarter station during this period.

Orders of Asst. Collector on Survey Duty

FOR ORDERS.

A.

C.O. No 1238 dated 1st May 1906 ruled that Asst Collectors sent for training to Settlement & Survey offices are not to be considered on duty in the districts to which they stand posted.

Under the above proceedings a case in No. 1557 dated 22.4.96 Mr.
J.J. Cotton, Asst. District Collector, High -apatam, was permitted to join Survey party at Sultan where he halted from 26th to the 30th and on the 30th & 31st May last he claimed daily allowance at his
per diem.

The Asst. Secy. disallowed the claim with ref to Art 1154 (a) C.R. as he considered that, under the provisions of the for. quoted above

P.O. 1238 dated 1st May 1906 This is the case of the Asst. Collector at Sultan who was permitted to join the Survey party on the 26th and remained there until the 30th and 31st May last.

Waltair was Mr. Cotton's head quarter station while ~~under~~ going survey training.

Mr. Cotton, however states that he was permitted by the Board to retain charge of his duties as Asst. Dist. Collector while undergoing survey training and submits therefore that he be granted the daily allowance for bills at Waltair, as under the circumstances, Karsapattam which he stands posted, should be held to be his headquarters.

The Asst. Genl. therefore inquires with ref to A. 17/65 C. & K. what station should be considered as Mr.
Cotton's head quarters.

But that this may be referred to the Board for remarks. It is best able to interpret the intention of the permission granted by it.

30.13
17.11.6. a copy of the Bd's order permitting Mr. Cotton to continue in charge of his ordinary duties while undergoing training is now attached.

As Mr. Cotton has allowed by the Board to continue in charge of his duties while undergoing survey training, it is submitted that Karsapattam (being his H.Q. Pro.) should be held to be his headquarters for the purpose of granting him the daily allowance for bills at that station while he is undergoing survey training.

Note
It will be sufficient if the order ends at "Station".
