To,
The Assistant Adjutant-General, Bangalore District.

Sir,
I have the honour to acknowledge your $\frac{A}{1370}$, dated the 13th Instant, which followed me into camp, and only returned to day. This must be my excuse for the delay in reply.

I shall be happy to accept the Command of the Bangalore Vol. Rifles for as long as I remain here, and will do my best for them. My old association with them will probably assist me with the rank and file in getting some energy into them.

I must however point out that in the event of His Excellency

Sir,
I have the honour to acknowledge

excuse for the delay in reply.

do my best for them. My old associates with them will probably assist me
energy into them.

that in the event of His Excellency honouring me by making this offer, my tenure would probably not extend beyond a year, unless my present work is to be taken up for continuation, but during such time as I may hold the post I undertake to do the best a civilian can to benefit the Corps and bring it up in numbers.

Thanking the General Officer Commanding the district for his kind thought of me in the matter,

I have the honour to be,
 Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Forwarded - I think Major Wheelerit recommends to be a good Commandant & I recommend the appointment It will be a decided disadvantage should he only hold it for one year, but it is very necessary that a Comd^t should be appointed without delay & circumstances may incidentally arise & he retain the post for a longer time -
