PORT ST. GEORGE.

22nd January 1896.

My dear MacCartie,

I return Carr's D.O. requesting that he may be appointed Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue permanently

The request is inadmissible. Please see the letter from the Government of India in G.O. No. 818 Public, dated 31st. October 1894 in which it objected to Murdoch's appointment as permanent Dy. Commissioner of Salt and Abkari with effect from the day before Horne, who held that post, proceeded on leave. Carr's case is quite parallel to Murdoch's.

Yours sincerely.

My dear Mr. Carter

Mr. Price tells me that His Excellency has very kindly promised to nominate me to act for long as during his absence on furlough, and I now write to ask whether His Excellency will be able to give me the appointment permanently.

I trust that my request may not be considered to be unreasonable for merely ask that the indulgence shown to Weyne himself may now be extended to me - It will be remembered that when Weyne took two years furlough in 1892, he was formally sighted out of the Secretaryship and Weyne at once took over charge as permanent Secretary.

Weyne has since returned to duty and has been posted as Sub-Com. Godaverry.

In any case it is, I think, in my favour that I have already acted twice in the appointment, and I venture to submit that I shall be very heavily handicapped in the matter of pay & position, if I enter on what are generally admitted to be the heavy duties of the Board's Secy without any prospect of confirmation - I shall be in ^{the} same position as I was three years ago when I acted for Weyne -

The pay of the Board's Secretary rises by annual increments but an acting secretary obtains no benefit from these - so that in the event of Weyne returning in 18 mos time I shall have put in 23 months service as Secretary without any increase of pay, whereas Weyne with only 21 months actual duty in some post has already earned 2 increments -

The task of pushing one's own claims is always unpleasant and I do not wish in any way to damage the interests of a man who is one of my best friends - I only ask to be treated on the same level -

I may say that if I am not confirmed as Supt now my transfer will at once involve a pecuniary loss - Living in Madras is more expensive than up country, and hence rent of an office carriage of them does swallow up any small increase of pay - moreover I might

2 in the ordinary course look for an acting appointment as District or Judge within this year or next, and as Secretary to the Board I shall be debarred from getting any such promotion - It will I think be unfair to make my selection for a special appointment - a practical punishment -

Yours sincerely
R. C. C. L.

My dear Eric

? My dear Carr's request may be granted. There seems no reason for treating him otherwise than

Wynne was - let me know what you say before I show it to the law

CHIEF SECRETARY
18 DEC 1895
GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

My dear Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 14th inst., the L. R. Board will have no objection to the appointment of R. C. C. Catt as its Secretary.

Yours sincerely,

very well - but how about gillman - who wants to much to go to quarter?
If it can be helped - we ought not to send Forbes to a hot place.

Mr. R. C. Carr is to act for Mr. Myer and your Excellency has decided to allow Mr. Buckley to return to Chingleput.
This will make the Sub-Collector of Kistna vacant.

Mr. A. J. Forbes (No. 100) is the next Officer for an Acting Sub-Collector. I understand that he can do the function, his place at Kankonda being taken by Mr.
McMichael (No. 140) who is now at Madras.

This will fill up all vacancies created by Mr. Myer's going on furlough.

The ruling of the Deck General appears to be correct and his Class can I fear be granted Privilege leave only to the 10th proximo.
It is questionable whether he would by that date be fit to return to duty.
I don't know how ^{out} to find a cool and light worked Sub Collector for him but no. Mr. Munro who is an headstrong fellow is considered a cool and no heavy division has intimated to me that he intends applying for his leave from the 4th April week.
Mr. Carr has to leave Mr. Much some two or three days before the 1st March. Mr. Much might be sent in to act for Mr. Carr. He would of course have to be gazetted and would have 22 days preparation and one to him which would bring him to the 17th ^{day}. Mr. Carr would then have his week. And if it was found necessary he would time could be taken. Mr. Clegg could then act on at Chingleput which is pleasant enough until the end of March when he could be sent to Wandsworth to take Mr. Munro's place. Mr. Buckley could wait until Mr. Clegg left Chingleput which would be somewhere about the 23rd March. The Chingleput Sub Division is not a light one but the house is good, the place healthy it is all right until the first week in April and if Mr. Clegg gets ill again he is within easy reach of hospital and the doctors.

W So long as he has in the 26 days ^{month} ~~month~~ to make up the three years which he requires it is absolutely necessary that he should remain for three months after return from leave. Govt can let him go if he sees fit.

A minute of appointment gazetted Mr. Carr as Secretary to the Commissioners of Land Revenue and Mr. Clegg as Subcollector, Chingleput is submitted to H.E. the Governor for signature.

Mr. Buckley will not be moved from Guntur yet awhile and there will be probably little difficulty in working Mr. Gilmour (and about 6th April) in there
