GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS.
PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From J. STURROCK, Esq., President, Board of Examiners, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated 4th February 1896, No. 1111.

I have the honour to report the result of the half-yearly examination of Assistants held on the 6th January 1896 and following days. Lists are enclosed showing the Assistants who had not passed their examination on that date and the subjects in which they have passed on this and previous occasions.

2. For the Higher Standard on this occasion there were nine candidates :—

Messrs. Ghose and Hughes came up in divisions A, C, F and G, having previously passed in the other subjects. Mr. Ghose failed. Mr. Hughes passed in C, F and G, failing in A.

Mr. MacIver came up in divisions A, B and F, having previously passed in D, E and G. He passed in F, failing in A and B. He did not appear in C.

Messrs. Gillespie and Marjoribanks appeared in C and G, having previously passed in the other subjects. They passed in C, failing in G.

Mr. Lys came up in division B, having previously passed in C, E and F, and failed. He did not appear in A, D and G.

Mr. Pope came up in divisions D, E and F. He passed in D and E, failing in F. He did not appear in A, B, C and G.

Mr. Roberts came up in divisions A, B, D and F. He passed in A, D and F, failing in B. He did not appear in C, E and G.

Mr. Macmichael came up in all divisions. He passed in D, E and F, failing in A, B, C and G.

3. For the Lower Standard there were nine candidates :—

Mr. Cotton came up in division B, having previously passed in the other subjects, and passed.

Messrs. Vibert, Harris and Lloyd came up in divisions A and B, having previously passed in the other subjects. Mr. Vibert failed. Messrs. Harris and Lloyd passed in B, failing in A.

Mr. Austin came up in division B, having previously passed in C, D and E, and failed. He did not appear in A.

Mr. Burn came up in divisions B and D, having previously passed in C and E. He passed in B, failing in D. He did not appear in A.

Mr. Thompson came up in all divisions except E in which he had already passed. He passed in A and D, failing in B and C.

Mr. Edgington came up in divisions B, D and E, having previously passed in C. He passed in D and E, failing in B. He did not appear in A.

Mr. Coleridge came up in all divisions except C in which he had already passed. He passed in B and E, failing in A and D.

The eight newly-arrived Junior Civilians came up in division C. Mr. Wood has passed and the rest have failed.

4. The general results of the examination are that for the Higher Standard none of the Assistants have qualified, and that for the Lower Standard Mr. Cotton alone has passed. Messrs. Vibert, Harris, Austin, Burn, Lloyd, Thompson, Edgington and Coleridge have not qualified.

5. With reference to G.O., No. 920, Financial, dated 18th September 1893, I have the honour to report that an inventory of valuable stock is maintained in this office and has been duly checked for the past official year.

Subject.

Reporting result of the half yearly examination of assistants by the Higher and Lower standards held on the 6th January 1896, and following days.

It seems from the table to show that the list of assistants who have passed in the subjects of the higher standard is as follows:—

The President might entail his report considerably by omitting from the body of it what is contained in what subjects in the tables now annexed to the present report.

Mr. Cotton is the only one that has passed the lower Standard!

None of the unpassed officers fall within the provisions of § 29 of the C. S. Manual, although some of them are not far off the limits prescribed therein. Perhaps a para might be added:—

" The President of the Board of Examiners will draw the attention of the Indian Civilians who arrived in 1892 and 1893 to the ruling in para 29 of the C. S. Manual"

The President might entail his report considerably by omitting from the body of it what is contained in what subjects in the tables now annexed to the present report.
