Order

More than a month has elapsed since I passed an order under Section 13 of Act II of 1878 and no suit having been instituted within the prescribed time, I would in ordinary course under Section 15 have directed the delivery of the coins to the finder Parasuraman: but as he failed to give the notice required by the law I am obliged under Section 20 of the Act to declare the whole to vest in Her Majesty. There is however no reason to order a prosecution as the coins were improperly taken out of the finder's custody by some of the temple people. The Treasury Deputy Collector will take charge of the treasure. The Government will be then addressed as to their final disposal (vide rule IV of the notification of 7th September 1878). (Signed) G.
