I presume that this arrangement will not prevent Mr. Meyer's completing the inquiry which he has in hand as to the conduct of the Ellore Sub Judge about the present.

FOR ORDERS.

It was decided in Council yesterday that Mr. H. I. Mounsey should act as Collector of Anantapur vice Mr. Nicholson granted furlough. It is understood that Mr. LeFanu is to take up his permanent appointment as Collector of Salem. It becomes necessary therefore to find an officer to act as Collector of Bellare. The original proposal was that Mr. Meyer should act in Anantapur and it is submitted that he might go to Bellare as acting Collector, Mr. Elphinstone whose leave expires today acting going to Rajahmundry as acting Sub-Collector. Mr. Nicholson wishes to be relieved on the 11th of March and allowing for the joining time, which will be about 10 days in each case, of Mr. Meyer to Bellare, Mr. LeFanu to Salem and Mr. Mounsey to Anantapur, Mr. Elphinstone would not be too early if he relieved Mr. Meyer at once. In any case this arrangement is approved a minute of appointment is submitted for signature as the posting of Mr. Elphinstone requires early sanction.

12/2/96
He will have ten days leave's link He need not him to Meyer out at once. Mr. Nicholson if not released by the date which he wishes can hand over to his 1st Lieut. or his housekeeper can hand over to his Sub. Col. and release Mr. Nicholson. Mr.

In case that your Excellency approves of the suggestions with regard to Messrs. Meyer and Elphinstone a minute of app. is submitted
