WITH ORDER

To

His Excellency the Governor and Council Madrid

The humble petition of Chunah Llor, late Justman of Burlapundo District
Especially sheweth,

That petitioner was Justman in the Katat Department and was dismissed from his office in consequence of which having made a false statement in connection with a suspicious letter.

That petitioner appealed to the Director General but was unsuccessful.

That petitioner appealed to Government but the Director General has his letter No 2274 of 3rd December 1875 with the the forwarding of the appeal as it was one six months.

That petitioner begs to state that was intertained in the Department in his youth and was therefore not concerned with the rules of the Department and hence he did not submit his appeal within six months. That petitioner's conduct is explained by the the Superintendent of Post Affairs it will be seen that he all along bore a good character and therefore he prays his claims be considered.

That petitioner begs to state that he served in the Katat

Department for the past 22 years

Intimates help & we excellency may be pleased to call for the records connected with the case and be pleased to order that he be reinstated in his former post.

For which petition shall we pray
