For orders. It would not be compatible with the strong recommendations previously made by both the S. G. and this Govt to permit S. M. Patch to remain in charge of his district for another two years before he appears before a Medl Bd. now: it is in accordance with India's intentions.
In the event of the Board recommending Dr. P. for leave the Govt can permit him to resume his duties (Sg. C.S.B.) until relieved and India will take about a month to get on.

I submit that when already served should be carried out
