G.O., No. 222, Public, dated 13th February 1896.

ABSTRACT.—Recording the report on the result of the half-yearly examination of Assistants by the Higher and Lower Standards held in January 1896, and requesting the President of the Board of Examiners to draw the attention of the Indian Civilians who arrived in 1892-93 to the ruling in paragraph 29 of the Civil Service Manual.

ORDER—No. 320, Public, dated 5th March 1896.

As only one Assistant (Mr. J. J. Cotton) passed at the last half-yearly examination, the Government considers it desirable that a special examination of the marginally-noted officers by the Lower Standard should be held on the 13th April 1896 and following days, at their district head-quarters. The President, Board of Examiners, will, at an early date, warn the Assistants concerned and make the necessary arrangements for the examination.

PUBLIC DEPARTMENT.

READ—the following paper :—

From J. STURROCK, Esq., President, Board of Examiners, Madras, to the Chief Secretary to Government, dated 4th February 1896, No. 1111.

I have the honour to report the result of the half-yearly examination of Assistants held on the 6th January 1896 and following days. Lists are enclosed showing the Assistants who had not passed their examination on that date and the subjects in which they have passed on this and previous occasions.

2. For the Higher Standard on this occasion there were nine candidates :—

Messrs. Ghose and Hughes came up in divisions A, C, F and G, having previously passed in the other subjects. Mr. Ghose failed. Mr. Hughes passed in C, F and G, failing in A.

Mr. MacIver came up in divisions A, B and F, having previously passed in D, E and G. He passed in F, failing in A and B. He did not appear in C.

Messrs. Gillespie and Marjoribanks appeared in C and G, having previously passed in the other subjects. They passed in C, failing in G.

Mr. Lys came up in division B, having previously passed in C, E and F, and failed. He did not appear in A, D and G.

Mr. Pope came up in divisions D, E and F. He passed in D and E, failing in F. He did not appear in A, B, C and G.

Mr. Roberts came up in divisions A, B, D and F. He passed in A, D and F, failing in B. He did not appear in C, E and G.

Mr. Macmichael came up in all divisions. He passed in D, E and F, failing in A, B, C and G.

3. For the Lower Standard there were nine candidates :—

Mr. Cotton came up in division B, having previously passed in the other subjects, and passed.

Messrs. Vibert, Harris and Lloyd came up in divisions A and B, having previously passed in the other subjects. Mr. Vibert failed. Messrs. Harris and Lloyd passed in B, failing in A.

Mr. Austin came up in division B, having previously passed in C, D and E, and failed. He did not appear in A.

Mr. Burn came up in divisions B and D, having previously passed in C and E. He passed in B, failing in D. He did not appear in A.

Mr. Thompson came up in all divisions except E in which he had already passed. He passed in A and D, failing in B and C.

Mr. Edgington came up in divisions B, D and E, having previously passed in C. He passed in D and E, failing in B. He did not appear in A.

Mr. Coleridge came up in all divisions except C in which he had already passed. He passed in B and E, failing in A and D.

The eight newly-arrived Junior Civilians came up in division C. Mr. Wood has passed and the rest have failed.

4. The general results of the examination are that for the Higher Standard none of the Assistants have qualified, and that for the Lower Standard Mr. Cotton alone has passed. Messrs. Vibert, Harris, Austin, Burn, Lloyd, Thompson, Edgington and Coleridge have not qualified.

5. With reference to G.O., No. 920, Financial, dated 18th September 1893, I have the honour to report that an inventory of valuable stock is maintained in this office and has been duly checked for the past official year.

GOVERNMENT OF MADRAS

My dear Sir,

I am told you are short of passed assistants to act as Head Assistants so I note overleaf the names who have nearly passed - giving also the marks they obtained in the subjects in which they have failed - As they have passed in languages they might possibly be allowed to act - subject to passing next day - or if a special exam is desired it might be limited to those men and the three subjects noted -

Yours sincerely
 H. B. Smith

The Assistants have not probably been studying pending intimation of results of last examination.
So it would be of little use to hold another examination without at least one month's notice. I propose to hold an examination of 6 assistants in their districts on Monday the 13th April.
