Requesting to wire to Surgn.
Col. W. R. Browne now on furlough in England to proceed forthwith to Madras to take up his new appointment as Senior Medical Officer of the Genl. Hospital.

Pub. in the office of the Secy.

Will.

It is submitted that there is no reason for telegraphing Dr. Price should await his relief. It is believed that the real object is to secure to Dr. Browne the privilege attached to a recall to duty as a matter of fact (it is understood) Dr. Browne is perfectly well aware of what is going on and will no doubt hasten his return without being summoned by Govt.

But Dr. Browne cannot be certain that Dr. Price retirement will be saved.
If any telegram goes it will be understood from the "selected summary" of 1st April "in the any order of recall."
