FOR ORDERS

His Excellency's orders are requested as regards the filling up of ^{the} permanent vacancy caused by the elevation of the Hon. Mr. Justice R.S. Benson to the High Court. The Hon. Mr. Benson held the permanent appointment of Collector of Malabar. The next officer for permanent Collectorate is 58, Mr. A.E.C. Stuart, who has for some time been acting as Collector of South Arcot. He might be confirmed in this post by appointing 46 Mr. Wolfe on paper to be Collector of Malabar. The next officer for permanent Sub-collectorate is 74 Mr. G.D.L. Campbell and he might be confirmed in his present appointment. Sub-collector of Tinnevely- by appointing Mr. B. Macleod on paper to be Sub-collector of Chingleput. It was decided on papers regarding Head Asst's vacancies recently circulated that 81 Mr. H.D. Taylor should be absorbed as a permanent Head Asst. in this vacancy; but as another permanent vacancy of Principal Asst. (Sub-collector) will, it is understood, arise in consequence of the appointment of 67 Mr. H.A. Stuart to be Private Secy: to Sir Arthur Havelock, perhaps Mr. Taylor's absorption may be left over until that vacancy occurs.

He has been granted furlough with effect from or after the 6th April.

2. 71 Mr. W.C. Horne is due from leave on the first April. He holds a special appointment, that of Dy. Commr. of Salt, Abhari and Separate Rev: and although this post is not mentioned in G.O. No. 429 Pub., d/ 31-5-93, it seems open to question whether as he is returning to the regular line, he should not be provided with a Sub-Collectorate and the Dy. Commissionership given to the officer who is actually filling the post, viz. 88 Mr. H.S. Brodie. H.E. The Governor will probably remember the correspondence of the Govt. of India when it was proposed to oust Mr. Horne before his departure on furlough. The papers are not available at present having been put up for another file; but a copy of Govt. of India, Finance and Commerce dept: No. 4536F, d/ 10-9-94 is submitted in this file. If it is decided to absorb Mr. Horne into the regular line, this can be done in Mr. Stuart's vacancy by appointing ^{the former} ~~him~~ to the Sub-Collectorate or the Principal Asst. ship vacated, Mr. Brodie as Commr. of Salt Rev: and Mr. Taylor to the Head Assistantship vacated by Mr. Brodie. If it is decided to do this, the Head Asst. ship in the vacancy now under consideration might, it is submitted, go to 115 Mr. W.E. Jardine who though he is ~~as~~ serving under the Foreign Dept.; does not hold a permanent post in that dept: and apparently will gain in salary by a permanent appointment. There seems ^{to be} no reason why Mr. Jardine should be passed over. If he does not get the Head Asst. ship, it will go ~~the~~ to the Provincial Civil Service.

as the promotion of Mr. Jardine will give him an addition to his salary - & if it is his right to obtain this promotion - I think ^{we should} ~~it is his right~~ give it to him. I understand all the time that no member of the Provincial Service has a prior claim to this Head Asst. ship.
