6d. I am rather doubtful what is the correct etiquette under the new regulations as to the procedure in papers marked with blue & whether the somewhat antiquated procedure of a pan de pois is necessary - In any case I do not suppose the rules could be held to apply to stations not within the Civil Administration of the Port of Madras. ie Bellary, Gundlupet, Mangalore, Mysore & the Ancharans -

"If the procedure is in right, I suggest the papers should run "ordered that the Defaulter, being the Officer, Madras, be requested to cause the above Pan de pois to be furnished at the head of the Troops in each Station and at all military stations within the Administration of the Port of Madras under a salute of 17 guns & their volley of "musket arms."
